The Enigma of Giorgio de Chirico Margaret Crosland, 1999 Giorgio de Chirico 1888 1978 was best known for his metaphysical paintings but he also wrote poems articles about art an autobiography and the first surrealist novel Even more mysterious than the paintings is the man himself secretive self centered and contradictory supercritical ironic and humorless yet creative in ways he probably hardly understood He did not share the Surrealists overt preoccupation with the erotic but was obsessed with memories of ancient mythology 19th century German philosophy metaphysics and the secrets of creativity With these obsessions he tried unconsciously to solve the problems of his own sexuality which he concealed within A loner who never formally aligned himself with the Surrealists or any other artistic movement he produced several thousand works of art with many changes of style These were praised by Guillaume Apollinaire Andre Breton Max Ernst and Paul Eluard He has remained one of the most baffling and memorable of those associated with the Surrealists

The Publishers Weekly, 1987 The Boston Globe Index, 1988 Whitaker's Book List, 1988 A History of Italian Art in the 20th Century Sandra Pinto, 2002 The volume traces a panorama one never before observed of the last century of Italian art within a global framework choosing that is the most distanced and wide ranging perspective in order to be the most all inclusive outside Italy and outside Europe Furthermore the historical line followed is also one of the first for Italian art to take account of the postmodern revolution and to follow every step of the alternating supremacies of modernity and antimodernity in the artistic research from 1900 to 2000 It is therefore shown that Italian art sometimes presents itself as homogeneous with international avant garde and neo avant garde movements sometimes as dishomogeneous recovering a specificity drawn from its own prestigious cultural past with foundations distinct from its historical present

The New York Times Book Review, 1988-07 Southern Humanities Review, 1989 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1988 Chelsea, 2002 Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Olderr's Fiction Index, 1988 Early Poems, 1947-1959 Yves Bonnefoy, 1991 Translated from the French by Galway Kinnell and Richard Pevear Yves Bonnefoy is probably the most prominent figure in the generation of French poets who came into public view following World War II Dedicated to poetry more as a means of spiritual illumination than as a technique for creating artistic monuments he uses what he conceives to be the brokenness and poverty of language to enable us to glimpse a wholeness lacking in our contemporary world This excellent translation of Bonnefoy s early poems represents an enormous contribution to contemporary poetry serving as an introduction to the work of Bonnefoy for those unfamiliar with his poetry as well as further evidence of his mastery for those who know his work well
