Children Under Fire John Woodrow Cox, 2021-03-30 Longlisted for the PEN John Kenneth Galbraith Award for Nonfiction Winner of the Goddard Riverside Stephan Russo Book Prize for Social Justice Based on the acclaimed series a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize an intimate account of the devastating effects of gun violence on our nation's children and a call to action for a new way forward In 2017 seven year old Ava in South Carolina wrote a letter to Tyshaun an eight year old boy from Washington DC She asked him to be her pen pal Ava thought they could help each other The kids had a tragic connection both were traumatized by gun violence Ava's best friend had been killed in a campus shooting at her elementary school and Tyshaun's father had been shot to death outside of the boy's elementary school Ava's and Tyshaun's stories are extraordinary but not unique In the past decade 15 000 children have been killed from gunfire though that number does not account for the kids who weren't shot and aren't considered victims but have nevertheless been irreparably harmed by gun violence In Children Under Fire John Woodrow Cox investigates the effectiveness of gun safety reforms as well as efforts to manage children's trauma in the wake of neighborhood shootings and campus massacres from Columbine to Marjory Stoneman Douglas Through deep reporting Cox addresses how we can effect change now and help children like Ava and Tyshaun He explores their stories and more including a couple in South Carolina whose eleven year old son shot himself a Republican politician fighting for gun safety laws and the charlatans infiltrating the school safety business In a moment when the country is desperate to better understand and address gun violence Children Under Fire offers a way to do just that weaving wrenching personal stories into a critical call for the United States to embrace practical reforms that would save thousands of young lives A Newsweek Favorite Book of 2021 An NPR 2021 Books We Love selection A Washington Post Notable Work of Nonfiction A Kirkus 2021's Best Most Urgent Books of Current Affairs selection

The War Crime of Child Soldier Recruitment Julie McBride,2013-11-05 The practice of using children to participate in conflict has become a defining characteristic of 21st century warfare and is the most recent addition to the canon of international war crimes This text examines the development of this crime of recruiting conscripting or using children for participation in armed conflict from human rights principle to fully fledged war crime prosecuted at the International Criminal Court The background and reasons for the growing use of children in armed conflict are analysed before discussing the origins of the crime in international humanitarian law and human rights law treaties including the Convention on the Rights of the Child and its Optional Protocol Specific focus is paid to the jurisprudence of the Special Court for Sierra Leone and the International Criminal Court in developing and expanding the elements of the crime the modes of ascribing liability to perpetrators and the defences of mistake and negligence The question of how the courts addressed issues of cultural sensitivity notably in terms of the liability of children is also addressed Childhood Under Fire Dov Vardi,Abba
