Children In Distress A Guide For Screening Childrens Art:

Children in Distress Linda Whitney Peterson, Milton Edward Hardin, 1997 The authors have developed a simple one page art screening form for use with the human figure drawing HFD and the kinetic family drawing KFD which has brought a standardization to the interview of these children and the interpretation of their art This is invaluable to front line clinicians private practitioners trauma centers child protective services and the legal system Using Drawings in Clinical Practice Gerald D. Oster, 2016-01-29 Clinicians are always in need of enticing techniques to engage clients on a daily basis especially those who are nonverbal or initially opposed to feedback Using Drawings in Clinical Practice provides a rich variety of drawing directives to enhance the diagnostic process In this highly illustrated text clinicians will discover the tools they need to interact effectively with their clients The book places special emphasis on intake interviewing and psychological testing where the potential for uncovering hidden conflicts and therapeutic direction is especially poignant Case studies provide a comprehensive overview of how to introduce simple drawings and gain remarkable insights Using Drawings in Clinical Practice is a crucial guidebook for professionals who seek new ways to facilitate meaningful communication and interactions in their practice settings Understanding and Assessing Trauma in Children and Adolescents Kathleen Nader, 2007-09-26 In this volume Kathleen Nader has compiled an articulate and comprehensive guide to the complex process of assessment in youth and adolescent trauma There are many issues that are important to evaluating children and adolescents and it is increasingly clear that reliance on just one type of assessment does not provide the most accurate results From history to recent advances this book covers a wide range of methods and measures for assessing trauma including case examples to illustrate the integration of these different facets Altogether the broad scope and inclusive depth of this work make it an essential addition to the field of trauma assessment Using Drawings in Assessment and Therapy Gerald D. Oster, Patricia Gould Crone, 2004-11 This is an updated version of the very successful first edition which condenses and synthesizes a variety of drawing directives that aid clinicians in the assessment process as well as in therapy Art Therapy Judith Aron Rubin, 1999 What is art therapy How do art therapists use art to understand and to help people What does the future of art therapy look like This book provides a map of the territory of this rapidly growing discipline Surveying the field from both a historical and a current perspective the book covers a wide variety of practitioners and approaches The reader will learn how art therapy is used to assess and to treat people of all ages and conditions in many kinds of settings including clinics hospitals schools prisons community centers and nursing homes Art Therapy An Introduction brings art therapy to life with over 40 clinical vignettes and almost 200 illustrations of artwork and of art therapy in action Offering a rich array of sources and resources the book will be of interest to clinicians and teachers in many fields such as psychiatry psychology social work counseling art and education HOME IS WHERE THE ART IS Doris Banowsky Arrington, 2001-01-01 This work reflects the author s three decades of clinical practice with children and their families and adults and their families Written for students and professionals this book integrates the two approaches art therapy and family systems Although much has been written on art therapy and much much more literature exists on family therapy few integrate the two theoretical approaches The structure of this book reflects the author s personal approach to art Her art media are painting and combining found objects The overall theme of family can quickly be seen within it but this theme is overlaid with art archetypal patterns and meanings and symbolic enactments It is also interfaced with personality development and in this era of the brain with neurobiological research The introduction begins with a brief introduction to Randy and his Dad and Stepmother Chapter Two begins with the question What is a family Chapter Three introduces the reader to the Cycle of Love and the family influences in personality development seen in personality theorists and theories e g Freud Jung attachment and object relations Eriksson and Piaget Stories about Michelle Elizabeth Tucker and Carl provide theoretical examples Since more and more family therapy practice includes violence associated with the unfilled basic human needs of nourishment and nurturing Chapter Four The Cycle of Violence begins with a discussion of violence and its effect on early childhood environments Chapter Five continues the theme of violence within families and Chapter Six The Cycle of Healing includes a discussion of resilience illustrated by a variety of stories from an integration of family and art therapy Appendix A is filled with the practical how to s of family art therapy Appendix B includes the how to interventions and Appendix C includes key terms and concepts of a select group of family therapy theorists

Stress Disorders J. Gayle Beck, Denise M. Sloan, 2012-02-24 The experience of traumatic events is a near universal albeit unfortunate part of the human experience Given how many individuals are exposed to trauma it is interesting to question why some individuals are resilient in the face of trauma while others go on to develop chronic post traumatic stress Throughout the relatively brief history of the psychological study of trauma a number of themes have consistently emerged many of these themes remain essential elements within our current study of traumatic stress disorders as summarized within this volume The Oxford Handbook of Traumatic Stress Disorders addresses the current landscape of research and clinical knowledge surrounding traumatic stress disorders Bringing together a group of highly regarded experts this volume is divided into six sections together summarizing the current state of knowledge about 1 classification and phenomenology 2 epidemiology and special populations 3 contributions from theory 4 assessment 5 prevention and early intervention efforts and 6 treatment of individuals with post trauma mental health symptoms Throughout the volume attention is paid to identifying current controversies in the literature and highlighting directions that hold promise for future work
