Children Of Promise:

Child of Promise Debbi Migit, 2008-08 I stared at the letter and picture as the tears fell I hadn't heard from Vickie in almost twenty years And then tonight of all nights I had received such a letter I held my breath as I sensed God's presence all around me Adoption was that what God had in mind for us Ten years of infertility brought Debbi and Phil Migit to a crisis of faith Child of Promise is the true account of one couple's journey from barrenness to the blessing of Transracial adoption There is a message that goes beyond infertility and adoption it will touch any believer and bring them to a better understanding of God's ultimate faithfulness Walk with Debbi and Phil as they remain faithful to God and finally receive their Child of Promise A Child of Promise Marshall B. Thompson Jr., 2006-10-30 Can one animal a golden stallion change the identity and future of a band of nomads Can one valued possession in fair exchange for another bring success to the traders Or is murder usually the result of the envy and hatred engendered by coveted treasures A Child of Promise concerns the growth of a child considered a gift and miracle from God and how his life brings a historical cycle of violence and murder to a resolution and perhaps redemption Entering the world during a violent storm Kaya is named by his dying mother lost to his Chipchak tribe during a Tartar raid nurtured in the cave of a bear disciplined in the school of the hermit and released into a world of enemies How will he overcome Does exile and rejection result in alienation and retaliation or to acceptance and love The Yuzbasha leader of a hundred becomes Ahjit the hungry one of the caravan trails Set in an environment radically different from our own age and under different yet universal danger to the world and civilization by the Huns the child of promise succeeds where others might fail to bring light from the past to illuminate the future and save the present Is Prophecy an act of God which He fulfills Or rather an act of faith requiring self fulfillment Do people hear that which they wish to believe and commence to make it so A Child of Promise deals with the joys and burdens of assumed truth and suggested fulfillments It traces in an event filled world the focus of self fulfilling assumptions about ourselves and our perceived destinies Do individuals try to live out the kind of life everyone assumed they will have Do we somehow alter a child to our future needs as a society Will there be a child of promise for tomorrow's needs The Golden Stallion series now A Child of Promise Tomorrow A Questing Stranger Finally A Hero's Return Don't miss them The Expositor Samuel Cox, Sir William Robertson Nicoll, James Moffatt, 1889 The Juvenile Instructor, 1899 The Faith, 1912 The Ladder of Promise Susan M.
