Children Of The Resistance:

Children of the Resistance Lore Cowan, 1969 Eight stories about the young people who served in various Resistance and underground organizations in Europe fighting the Nazis during World War II Children of the Resistance - Volume 1 - Opening Moves Dugomier, 2019-06-12T00:00:00+02:00 On May 10th 1940 Nazi Germany attacked France Belgium the Netherlands and Luxembourg Their advance was swift and led to the fall of France just six weeks later In the fictional French village of Pontain L cluse 13 year old Fran ois is shocked to see his fellow villagers and even some of his family members accept this occupation and submit to the laws and behavior of the German invaders Determined to thwart the enemy he enlists his friend Eus be to help sabotage the Nazis and motivate his village to unite against them A fascinating tale of the Resistance and of actions taken by its youngest activists inspired by true stories Children of the Resistance - Volume 4 - Escalation Dugomier, 2019-09-18T00:00:00+02:00 For 14 year old Fran ois and his fellow Resistance fighters the situation in both their village and the country as a whole keeps deteriorating and the stakes keep rising one of the townsfolk has begun denouncing Jews to the Nazis the kids suffer another tragedy when someone close to them is killed in action and the persecution of the Jews reaches previously unimaginable heights In the face of such threats the Resistance begins to bring itself together uniting different movements and improving its radio communication intelligence and escape networks largely thanks to members like Fran ois and his friends The Handbook of Gestalt Play Therapy Rinda Blom, 2006-07-15 The Handbook of Gestalt Play Therapy provides the reader with an explanation of gestalt theory a practical explanation of the gestalt play therapy model and also a wide range of play techniques that can be applied during each phase of the therapy process It features case studies throughout which illustrate how the techniques work in practice A.M.A. American Journal of Diseases of Children ,1921 Children of the Resistance - Volume 6 - Disobedience! Dugomier, 2020-08-26T00:00:00+02:00 As Fran ois and his friends continue to carry out their usual Resistance activities a threatening new law is announced young Frenchmen would now be sent to work in the factories of Nazi Germany whose own young men were now deployed in battle across the continent This provides a new challenge for our young heroes but also an opportunity to encourage the French to engage in civil disobedience and to recruit new members for the Resistance Proceedings of the ... New York (State) Family Court, 1928 Contains statistics for the City of New York Transactions of the Section on Diseases of Children of the American Medical Association ,1918 Coercive Control in Children's and Mothers' Lives Emma Katz, 2022 Coercive control is a severe form of domestic violence experienced by millions of children worldwide It involves a perpetrator using a range of tactics to intimidate humiliate degrade exploit isolate and control a partner or family member Some coercive control perpetrators use violence others do not Drawing on interviews with children and mothers who have experienced coercive control based domestic violence this groundbreaking book sheds light on the impacts of coercive control on children how it is perpetrators who must be held accountable for those impacts and how resistance by children and mothers occurs Resistance happens in everyday life not just in response to incidents of violence Breaking free from coercive control is not a one off event but a sustained battle for safety and recovery in which child and adult survivors need supports and professional interventions that work Written accessibly for students researchers practitioners survivors of domestic violence and anyone with a general interest in the topic the book provides a child centered perspective to revolutionize our understanding of how children are affected by coercive control based domestic violence

Children of the Resistance - Volume 5 - A Nation divided Dugomier,2019-10-16T00:00:00+02:00 France has been under occupation by Nazi Germany for over two years now and the French population is suffering under shortages forced transfers to factories in Germany constant propaganda conflicting political views and the brutal presence of a new pro Nazi French militia Nevertheless hope remains alive as German troops are experiencing their first major defeats and the Resistance network keeps growing Communication with London is steadily improving too as radio operators risk their lives to transmit from inside the Occupied Zone The children s new mission is to help these operators get their coded messages to the Allies Easier said than done

The British Journal of Children's Diseases ,1924 Physical Education for Lifelong Fitness Physical Best (Program),Suzan F. Smith-Ayers,2011 Physical Education for Lifelong Fitness The Physical Best Teacher s Guide presents strategies to incorporate health related fitness and activity into PE programs Teachers learn to develop a curriculum based on current national standards and guidelines apply fitness concepts in real world settings and motivate students to live healthy active lives

Parent-Child Interaction Ronald W. Henderson,2013-10-22 Parent Child Interaction Theory Research and Prospects is intended a to provide a synthesis of a segment of this growing body of literature on interrelationships between children and their parents b to examine the theoretical implications of this research c to review and assess common methodological approaches to the study of home environmental influences on the development of children and d to identify directions future research must take if our understanding of family influences and their place in a broader sociocultural context is to be extended The book is organized into three parts Part I examines theory and research on major aspects of parent child influence processes Part II examines the methods employed in research on family environments and considers the unique features that distinguish research on home environmental influences from traditional educational research Part III provides different perspectives on the application of psychological knowledge to socialization processes This book is intended for educational and developmental psychologists with interests in socialization processes as well as for practitioners who design parental programs that minimize discontinuities between competing socialization influences This volume will also prove useful in graduate courses in educational developmental and community psychology as a reference for professionals involved in school psychology school administration and pupil personnel work and for psychologists and social workers involved in youth service agencies child guidance diagnostic clinics parent education and family therapy

Gendered Domestic Violence and Abuse in Popular Culture Shulamit Ramon,Michele Lloyd,Bridget

Penhale,2020-11-30 As binge watching and streaming lead to increasing amounts of content and screen time understanding how domestic violence and abuse is portrayed in popular culture and its impact on DVA in our society is more important than ever This collection demonstrates how networked communication is influencing activism both online and in the real world

Deciding Children's Futures Joyce Scaife,2024-07-19 The second edition of Deciding Children's Futures addresses the thorny task of assessing parents and children who belong to struggling families where there are issues of neglect or significant harm and when separating parents are contesting arrangements for the care of their children in the family court This practitioner's guide discusses how to create relationships and pose questions that breach natural parental defences to understand their histories anxieties and needs Drawing on practice knowledge theory and research findings it integrates the accounts of parents and children with safeguarding imperatives and government guidance to enable informed decisions that positively impact children's futures Chapters address issues such as drug and alcohol misuse mental health difficulties and learning disabilities Fabricated or Induced Illness FII abuse and alienation of children and encourage readers to consider the impact of their own values histories and beliefs on the assessment process This edition is completely updated to reflect all the factors that have impacted assessments for the family court including updates to case law and procedure rules devolution of governments and updates to DSM and ICD diagnostic categories Providing a comprehensive understanding of assessment for the family court this user friendly volume will be of great interest to expert witnesses social workers mental health professionals solicitors and anyone working in the family court system
