Border Crossings A Novel:

Border Crossing Maria Colleen Cruz, 2003-10-31 Eleven year old Cesi knows all about her mother's Cherokee and Irish family but little about her father's Mexican heritage and when she finds no answers at home in California she sets out on alone for Tijuana

Fiction Across Borders Shameem Black, 2010 Theorists of Orientalism and postcolonialism argue that novelists betray political and cultural anxieties when characterizing the Other Shameem Black takes a different stance Turning a fresh eye toward several key contemporary novelists she reveals how border crossing fiction represents socially diverse groups without resorting to stereotype idealization or other forms of imaginative constraint Focusing on the work of J M Coetzee Amitav Ghosh Jeffrey Eugenides Ruth Ozeki Charles Johnson Gish Jen and Rupa Bajwa Black introduces an interpretative lens that captures the ways in which these authors envision an ethics of representing social difference They not only offer sympathetic portrayals of the lives of others but also detail the processes of imagining social difference Whether depicting the multilingual worlds of South and Southeast Asia the exportation of American culture abroad or the racial tension of postapartheid South Africa these transcultural representations explore social and political hierarchies in constructive ways Boldly confronting the orthodoxies of recent literary criticism Fiction Across Borders builds upon such seminal works as Edward Said's Orientalism and offers a provocative new study of the late twentieth century novel

Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today's world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story's unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty first century engage with the concept of the border

Border Crossing Alexander Burry, 2016-04-08 Each time a border is crossed there are cultural political and social issues to be considered Applying the metaphor of the border crossing from one temporal or spatial territory into another Border Crossing Russian Literature into Film examines the way classic Russian texts have been altered to suit new cinematic environments In these essays international scholars examine how political and economic circumstances from a shifting Soviet political landscape to the perceived demands of American and European markets have played a crucial role in dictating how filmmakers transpose their cinematic hypertext into a new environment Rather than focus on the degree of accuracy or fidelity with which these films address their originating texts this innovative collection explores the role of ideological political and other cultural pressures that can affect the transformation of literary narratives into cinematic offerings

Border-Crossing Japanese Literature Akiko Uchiyama, Barbara Hartley, 2023-07-21 This collection focuses on metaphorical as well as temporal and physical border crossing in writing from and about Japan With a strong consciousness of gender and socio historic contexts contributors to the book adopt an intercultural and interdisciplinary approach to examine the writing of authors whose works break free from the confines of hegemonic Japanese literary endeavour By demonstrating how the texts analysed step outside the space of Japan they accordingly foreground the volatility of textual expression related to that space The authors discussed include Takahashi Mutsuo and Nagai Kaf both of whom take literary inspiration from geographical sites outside Japan Several chapters examine the work of exemplary border crossing poet novelist and essayist It Hiromi There are discussions of the work of Tawada Y ko whose ability to publish in German and Japanese marks her also as a representative writer of border crossing texts Two chapters address works by Murakami Haruki who although clearly affiliating with western cultural form is rarely discussed in specific border crossing terms The chapter on Ainu narratives invokes topics such as translation indigeneity and myth while an analysis of Japanese prisoner of war narratives notes the language and border crossing nexus A vital collection for scholars and students of Japanese literature

Crossing Borders Maryanne Felter, 2010

Transnational Crime Fiction Maarit Piipponen, Helen Mäntymäki, Marinella Rodi-Risberg, 2020-10-27 Focusing on contemporary crime narratives from different parts of the world this collection of essays explores the mobility of crimes criminals and investigators across social cultural and national borders The essays argue that such border crossings reflect on recent sociocultural transformations and geopolitical anxieties to create an image of networked and interconnected societies where crime is not easily contained The book further analyses crime texts wider sociocultural and affective significance by examining the global mobility of the genre itself across cultures languages and media Underlining the global reach and mobility of the crime genre the collection analyses types and representations of mobility in literary and visual crime narratives inviting comparisons between texts crimes and mobilities in a geographically diverse context The collection ultimately understands mobility as an object of study and a critical lens through which transformations in our globalised world can be examined

Border Crossings Kathryn J. Kirkpatrick, 2000 Writing in the shadows of Joyce and Yeats Irish women have long contributed to the ongoing formation of Irish identities Border Crossings secures for a largely overlooked body of writing its place in the Irish literary canon

Border Crossings Peter Wagstaff, 2004 This volume assesses the importance of border crossings in the evolution of European culture and identity as reflected in the work of modern European writers and film makers Contributors chart the processes of transition from stability to change from the known to the culturally unsettled treating the themes of migration exile allegiance and belonging journey marginality the legacy of war and displacement memory and the denial of memory What emerges is a cross disciplinary reappraisal of the concept of identity in which fixity is replaced by movement and in which the dynamic process of story telling with its narratives of migration exile and borders crossed mirrors the shifting and nomadic pluralities of modern existence English Novel Explication Peter L. Abernethy,1976 Crossing Borders Heinz Ickstadt,1997
