

A night photograph of a city street with buildings and lights reflected in water. The scene is captured from a low angle, looking down a street that runs parallel to a body of water. The water in the foreground is dark, but it reflects the warm, golden lights of the buildings and street lamps on the opposite side. The buildings are multi-story, with some having classic architectural features like arched windows. The sky is a deep, clear blue, suggesting twilight. The overall mood is serene and urban.
