Andrew Chesnut, 1997 For vivid insight lively narrative and persuasive use of life histories this is a major piece of ethnography David Martin University of London Religious Freedom and Evangelization in Latin America Paul E. Sigmund, 1999 Religious Freedom and Evangelization in Latin America provides an indispensable resource for understanding the range of issues confronting the continent offering Catholic as well as Protestant perspectives and trenchant analyses of the situation in different countries including Brazil Argentina Mexico Nicaragua and Cuba BOOK JACKET Hispanic Christian Thought at the Dawn of the 21st Century Justo L. González, 2005 In this book Alvin Padilla Roberto Goizueta and Eldin Villafañe bring together an impressive array of Hispanic scholars from across the theological disciplines to articulate just such a comprehensive construction of Hispanic theology Their purpose is to delineate the common elements in Hispanic biblical studies theology and ethics and to draw these together into a statement of what Hispanic theology has to say to the larger theological community and to the church To do so they organize their presentation around four theological streams that run through Hispanic theology Reading Scripture from the Margins The contributors will present a reading of the biblical text that incorporates into its interpretative methodology the experience of alienation and marginalization the central feature of Hispanic sociohistorical reality Subversive and Liberating Memories The contributors discover the subversive and liberating stories and voices within the Christian tradition and demonstrate how the memory of these liberate Hispanics and others from contemporary oppression Liberating Truth The authors offer fresh perspective on theological truth incorporating the distinctive Hispanic sources locus and expressions Liberating Praxis Drawing on current Hispanic religious experience for example spirituality church life and ministry the authors reflect on the way Hispanic religious experience is changing and how it will change the landscape of Western Christianity in the 21st century Conversion of a Continent Timothy J. Steigenga, Edward L. Cleary, 2007 A massive religious transformation has unfolded over the past forty years in Latin America and the Caribbean In a region where the Catholic Church could once claim a near monopoly of adherents religious pluralism has fundamentally altered the social and religious landscape Conversion of a Continent brings together twelve original essays that document and explore competing explanations for how and why conversion has occurred Contributors draw on various insights from social movement theory to religious studies to help outline its impact on national attitudes and activities gender relations identity politics and reverse waves of missions from Latin America aimed at the American immigrant community Unlike other studies on religious conversion this volume pays close attention to who converts under what circumstances the meaning of conversion to the individual and how the change affects converts beliefs and actions The thematic focus makes this volume important to students and scholars in both religious studies and Latin American studies Religion and Latin America in the Twenty-first Century Seminar on the Acquisition of Latin American Library Materials, Inc. Meeting, 1999 Contemporary Latin America, Second Edition Ronaldo

Munck,2008 Fully updated for the new 2nd edition Contemporary Latin America provides a concise introduction to the region written in an accessible and student friendly style by a well known authority A brief introduction to the historical context the countries and their peoples provides a backdrop to broad ranging coverage of contemporary politics political economy society and culture and of the prospects of the continent in a changing world Religious Conversion and Disaffiliation

Henri Gooren,2010-09-15 The conversion career defined as all episodes of participation in religious organizations during a person s life is a new and systematic approach to conversion and disaffiliation as a dynamic process It is a tool to analyze the interplay of factors between the individual actor the religious organization and the wider social and cultural context This book is the first in over a decade to attempt a systematic synthesis of the field of conversion studies encompassing the disciplines of anthropology sociology psychology history and theology Gooren analyzes conversion and disaffiliation in a worldwide comparative framework using data from North America Europe and Latin America Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion: A-I
