Born Confused:

Born Confused Tanuja Desai Hidier, 2003 Dimple's parents are from India and she's spent her whole life resisting their traditions. When her parents arrange for her to meet a suitable boy, Dimple is sure she's hit rock bottom until she finds herself liking him.

International Labour Migration in the Middle East and Asia Kwen Fee Lian, Naomi Hosoda, Masako Ishii, 2019-08-22 The discourse on migration outcomes in the West has largely been dominated by issues of integration but it is more relevant to view immigration in non-Western societies in relation to practices of exclusion and inclusion. Exclusion refers to a situation in which individuals and groups are usually denied access to the goods, services, activities, and resources associated with citizenship. However, this approach has been criticised in relation to gender issues which are very relevant to the situation of migrants. The authors in this volume address this criticism. Furthermore, when framed within a North-South discourse, it may be potentially ethnocentric to assume that the experience of exclusion is cross-culturally uniform. Indeed, work on migration issues has invariably been conducted within such a discourse. The contributors go beyond this binary discourse of exclusion versus inclusion which has dominated migration research. They examine the situation of migrants in the Middle East and Asia as one that encompasses both exclusion and inclusion, addressing related concepts of empowerment, ethnocentrism, the feminisation of migration, and gendered geographies of power, liberal constraint, and multiculturalism, individual agency, migrant-friendly discourses, spaces of emancipation, and spaces of insecurity. The book highlights current research in the Arab Gulf states and examines multiculturalism in Asia more broadly. It will be of particular interest to students and researchers in international labour migration studies in the Middle East and Asia.

Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience Sang Chi, Emily Moberg Robinson, 2012-02-13 This unique work presents an extraordinary breadth of contemporary and historical views on Asian America and Pacific Islanders conveyed through the voices of the men and women who lived these experiences over more than 150 years. In 1848 the First Wave of Asian immigration arrived in the United States. By the first decade of the 21st century Asian Americans were the nation's fastest growing racial group. Through a far-ranging array of primary source documents, Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience shares what it was like for these diverse peoples to live and work in the United States for better and for worse. Organized chronologically by ethnicity, the book covers a panoply of ethnic groups including recent Asian immigrants and mixed-race/mixed-heritage Asian Americans. There is also a topical section that showcases views on everything from politics to class to gender dynamics, underscoring that the Asian American population is not nor has it ever been monolithic. In choosing material, the editors strove to make the volume as comprehensive as possible. Thus, readers will discover documents written by transnational, adopted, and homosexual Asian Americans, as well as documents written from particular religious positions.
