And much more

Organic eggs come from feeding organic chicken feed

All natural organic eggs not only taste better than the store bought kind but they are healthier for you

Eggs from free roaming chickens that eat grass are lower in cholesterol and higher in Omega 3 fatty acids and vitamin E

They will have a deep yellow orange yolk

Once you eat one of these eggs you will never want to buy eggs at the supermarket again

Chickens in your backyard do more than provide you with eggs They are a pest control army Forget about costly and possibly dangerous lawn chemicals turn a flock of chickens loose in your yard and watch them go to work They will gladly take out any garden pest that they come across I even saw one of my chickens eat a scorpion And their droppings make excellent fertilizer Because chickens eat grass they will even keep your mowing to a minimum Chickens will even take care of your yard waste Just offer your chickens a pile of weeds and yard debris and they will take care of it You will not be required to bag it up and remove it Just be absolutely sure pesticides have not been used on the plants My favorite thing about chicken keeping is that they eat leftovers They will eat just about anything but even so there are certain things that you do not want to feed your chickens especially onions or garlic as that will make the eggs taste odd Ready to get started Click Buy Now
