Power Sharing Elizabeth Keating,1998-12-03 What allows certain individuals and groups to maintain control over the actions and lives of others Linguistic anthropologist Elizabeth Keating went to the island of Pohnpei in Micronesia and studied how people use language and other semiotic codes to reproduce and manipulate status differences The result is this inside view of how language works to create power and social inequality This book challenges widely held theories on the nature of social stratification including women s roles in creating hierarchy

Bitter Shield Dennis Adair,Janet Rosenstock,2000-06-30 Kanata Bitter Shield Thunder Gate Wildfires and Victoria tell the story of Canada s settlement from sea to sea through the lives of two Scot s families who leave Scotland after the Battle of Culloden Janet Cameron MacLean believing the man she loves to be dead wants a new start in a new country Mathew Macleod searches for Janet and being unable to find her assumes she too is lost A few years later they are reunited in Quebec and the saga of the MacLeans and the Macleods begins Each volume is a story in itself and each involves cross border action as families are divided by French and English and later by the American Revolution The exciting history of Canada is revealed in the westward struggle It becomes clear that Canada is as much a product of the American Revolution as the United States
