The State and the Arts Judith Kapferer, 2008-08-01 Judith Kapferer and her collaborators present an insightful volume that interrogates relations between the state and the arts in diverse national and cultural settings The authors critique the taken for granted assumption about the place of the arts in liberal or social democratic states and the role of the arts in supporting or opposing the ideological work of government and non government institutions This innovative volume explores the challenges posed by the state to the arts and by the arts to the state focusing on several transformations of the interrelations between state and commercial arts policies in the current era These ongoing challenges include the control of repressive tolerance complicity with and resistance to state power and the commoditization of the arts including their accommodation to market and state apparatuses While endeavouring to avoid the currently dominant pragmatic and didactic priorities of officialdom the contributors tackle social and cultural policy and practice in the arts as well as connections between national states and dissenting art from a range of genres

Makers Janet Koplos, Bruce Metcalf, 2010-07-31 Here is the first comprehensive survey of modern craft in the United States Makers follows the development of studio craft objects in fiber clay glass wood and metal from its roots in nineteenth century reform movements to the rich diversity of expression at the end of the twentieth century More than four hundred illustrations complement this chronological exploration of the American craft tradition Keeping as their main focus the objects and the makers Janet Koplos and Bruce Metcalf offer a detailed analysis of seminal works and discussions of education institutional support and the philosophical underpinnings of craft In a vivid and accessible narrative they highlight the value of physical skill examine craft as a force for moral reform and consider the role of craft as an aesthetic alternative Exploring craft s relationship to fine arts and design Koplos and Metcalf foster a critical understanding of the field and help explain craft s place in contemporary culture Makers will be an indispensable volume for craftspeople curators collectors critics historians students and anyone who is interested in American craft

Fire and Form William Warmus,2003 South Florida is home to some of the world s premier private collections of studio glass collections whose abundance diversity and quality are celebrated in Fire and Form This volume features more than 100 works by 31 of the best known American and European glass artists of our time including Jaroslava Brychtova Dale Chihuly Dan Dailey Stanislav Libensky William Morris Tom Patti Lino Tagliapietra and many others William Warmus identifies four prominent themes in the relatively recent development of studio glass since 1960 that provide a framework for exploring the rich variety of works presented in this book The first theme is what Warmus has called the particular affinity between nature and the making of glass Where nature creates a heart the glass artist creates a heart felt vessel The second is the ability of glass equally to that of painting and sculpture to convey the power of abstraction and color A third theme is the prevalent use of glass sometimes called the new bronze to depict the human figure and animal forms The final section deals with the theatrical nature of installations and environmental sculptures demonstrating the surprising capability of glass to impose itself physically and emotionally on the space we inhabit altering our very perception of it ancient Egypt and places contemporary glass within the context of contemporary art and theory at large In addition the book includes selected artists bibliographies and a chronological bibliography of contemporary glass that lists key historical events general trends and developments and important publications Fire and Form offers a unique perspective on this vital and intoxicating medium and its publication is a welcome event for all lovers of glass those who make it those who collect it and those who admire it
