The Policy of the Government on the issue of Child Labour

Article 24 of the Indian constitution clearly states that, "No child below the age of fourteen years shall be employed to work in any factory or mine or employed in any hazardous employment." The Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act of 1986 designates a child as a person who has not completed their 14th year of age. It aims to regulate the hours and the working conditions of child workers and to prohibit child workers from being employed in hazardous industries.

The National Policy on Child Labour declared in August, 1987, contains the action plan for tackling the problem of Child Labour. It envisages:

- A legislative action plan:
The Government has enacted the Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act, 1986 to prohibit the engagement of children in certain employments and to regulate the conditions of work of children in certain other employments.
- Focusing and convergence of general development programmes for benefiting children wherever possible, A Core Group on convergence of various welfare schemes of the Government has been constituted in the Ministry of Labour & Employment to ensure that, the families of the Child Labour are given priority for their upliftment.
- Project-based action plan of action for launching of projects for the welfare of working children in areas of high concentration of Child Labour.

A. Legislative Policy adopted by Government for eradication of Child Labour following steps have been taken

Prevention:

- Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act, 1986 prohibits employment of children below the age of 14 years in 18 occupations and 65 processes.
- The onus of enforcement of the provisions of the Act lies with the State Governments as envisaged in Section 2 of the Act.
- The Union of India monitors the enforcement from time to time. Special drives on enforcement and awareness generation are also launched from time to time.
