Child School Interface:

The Child-school Interface Raya A. Jones,1995 Reviews up to date multidisciplinary research into relationships between school environments and child learning and behaviour The text is underpinned by a view of the school as a systemic whole and is supported by discussions of the theoretical models and research methods Child Rearing in the Home and School R.P. Boger,R.J. Griffore,2013-06-29 This volume is intended to address contemporary aspects of child rearing in the home and the school as well as major dimensions of inter face between the home and the school The authors of these chapters have used varying styles and approaches and the range of perspectives is very broad and inclusive An essential notion integrating all chapters is that child rearing is a human ecological concern of dominant importance for the home the school and the community during the 1980 s and that this will continue to be true in the future This volume is intended to be useful as a reference book as a text for researchers and for policy makers It is hoped that the volume also will be of use to parents teachers school administrators child care workers and others who are interested in child nurturance The editors wish to extend appreciation to many individuals who made this effort possible Our colleagues Hiram Fitzgerald and Marjorie Kostelnik have been most helpful and encouraging We thank them for their patience support and invaluable editorial assistance during the production of the camera ready copy of the volume We also thank Barbara Taylor for her assistance in typing the chapters and Carrie DeMyers for typing the camera ready copy Carrie s good nature and posi tive outlook helped to smooth over the many frustrations inherent in the assembly and production of anthologies such as this one

School-family Partnerships for Children's Success Evanthia N. Patrikakou,Amy R. Anderson,2005-08-29 In this groundbreaking volume the most influential leaders in the field provide essential information to better understand and improve the nature and quality of school and family partnerships for the benefit of all children These experts examine the various aspects and effects of parental involvement not only on children s academic achievement but also on their social and emotional development Featuring a comprehensive multidimensional framework the text addresses critical issues facing families and educators developmental considerations cultural perspectives and policy issues Each chapter includes recommendations to help educators parents and policymakers create and sustain successful partnerships to support children s development

Nurture Groups in School and at Home Paul Cooper,Yonca Tiknaz,2007-04-15 The authors present evidence of the success of nurture groups and examine what factors affect the success of the group From this they draw key messages for effective practice including the importance of recognising a child s emotional needs and meeting them and the role of the relationship between the teaching staff co ordinating the group School Behaviour and Families Sue Roffey,2013-10-18 This book focuses on the relationship that schools have with parents and carers especially in the early stages of behavioral difficulty It aims to promote the best possible partnership with parents in what is often a sensitive and emotionally fraught situation It contains an overview of the context and a general theoretical framework for home school interactions on behavior research findings on factors which facilitate or inhibit effective partnerships helping teachers understand why some parents carers are reluctant to become involved or may appear aggressive and suggests ways in which schools might usefully respond and chapters written by contributors with specific expertise in working with parents who have harmed their children the carers of children in foster families and residential homes mobile families including travelers and asylum seekers and families from diverse communities The book is intended primarily for teachers and school managers at every phase of education but will also be of interest to educational psychologists home school liaison officers support staff counselors mentors LEA officers and anyone working in parent partnership schemes
