Child Emotional Security Interparental:

Child Emotional Security and Interparental Conflict Patrick T. Davies, Gordon T. Harold, Marcie C. Goeke-Morey, E. Mark Cummings, 2003-01-17 Child Emotional Security and Interparental Conflict tests a theory proposing that high levels of conflict between parents leads to an increased child risk for mental health difficulties by shaking the child's sense of security in the family. This insecurity was associated with greater mental health difficulties even when considering the role of prior mental health child perceptions of parental conflict and parent-child relations.

Child Emotional Security and Interparental Conflict Patrick Davies, 2002

Child Emotional Security and Interparental Conflict, 2002 Marital Conflict and Children E. Mark Cummings, Patrick T. Davies, 2011-09-01 From leading researchers this book presents important advances in understanding how growing up in a discordant family affects child adjustment, the factors that make certain children more vulnerable than others and what can be done to help. It is a state-of-the-science follow-up to the authors' seminal earlier work Children and Marital Conflict: The Impact of Family Dispute and Resolution. The volume presents a new conceptual framework that draws on current knowledge about family processes, parenting, attachment, and children's emotional, physiological, cognitive, and behavioral development. Innovative research methods are explained, and promising directions for clinical practice with children and families are discussed.

Developmental Psychopathology, Theory and Method Dante Cicchetti, 2016-02-29 The seminal reference for the latest research in developmental psychopathology. Developmental Psychopathology is a four-volume compendium of the most complete and current research on every aspect of the field. Volume One, Theory and Method, focuses on the theoretical and empirical work that has contributed to dramatic advancements in understanding of child and adult development, including findings in the areas of genetics and neurobiology, as well as social and contextual factors. Now in its third edition, this comprehensive reference has been fully updated to reflect the current state of the field and its increasingly multilevel and interdisciplinary nature, and the increasing importance of translational research. Contributions from expert researchers and clinicians provide insight into how multiple levels of analysis may influence individual differences, the continuity or discontinuity of patterns, and the pathways by which the same developmental outcomes may be achieved. Advances in developmental psychopathology have burgeoned since the 2006 publication of the second edition, ten years ago, and keeping up on the latest findings in multiple avenues of investigation can be burdensome to the busy professional and researcher from psychology and related fields. This reference solves the problem by collecting the best of the best, as edited by Dante Cicchetti, a recognized leader in the field, into one place with a logical organization designed for easy reference. Get up to date on the latest research from the field. Explore new models, emerging theory, and innovative approaches. Learn new technical analysis and research design methods. Understand the impact of life stage on mental health. The complexity of a field as diverse as developmental psychopathology deepens with each emerging theory and new area of study, as made obvious by the exciting findings coming out of institutions and clinics around the world.

Developmental Psychopathology Volume One Theory and Method brings these findings together into a cohesive broad reaching reference Developmental Psychopathology, Volume 3 Dante Cicchetti, Donald J. Cohen, 2006-03-31

Developmental Psychopathology Volume 3 Risk Disorder and Adaptation provides a life span developmental perspective on high risk conditions and mental disorders Moreover it examines developmental pathways to resilient adaptation in the face of adversity The Relationship Between Parental Conflict and Family Interactions Nicole Stettler, 2010 Advances in Child Development and Behavior Robert V. Kail, 2007-07-03

Volume 35 of the Advances in Child Development and Behavior series is divided into nine components that highlight some of the most recent research in developmental and educational psychology A wide array of topics are discussed in detail including Cognitive Mechanisms Episodic and Autobiographical Memory Emotional Security Theory Working memory and much more Each component provides in depth discussions of various developmental psychology specializations This volume serves as an invaluable resource for psychology researchers and advanced psychology students Psychology of Family Relationships Maria Russo, Anabella De Luca, 2009

This book investigates the psychology of family relationships including parent child relations sibling relations maternal foetal and marital relations The influence of prenatal mother child attachment on intrauterine foetal movements is examined as well as mother infant interaction which was studied by looking at Nicaraguan and Italian mothers and how they engage in social play object play and what their overall verbal behaviours were towards their infants In addition rather than the usual focus on dietary and physical activity aspects of child weight management certain family relationships are highlighted which might either enhance or hinder coping with child weight management Sensitivity is reflected in many different ways in maternal behaviour This book examines maternal sensitivity and its association with child directed speech CDS In addition the changes in how parents interact with their toddler aged children are described as they move from dyadic to family contexts Several models depicting the role of adolescent ratings of self esteem anxiety and or depression particularly in late adolescence are also examined This book addresses the relationships among siblings and how individual differences in emotionality at the behavioural level of analysis correlates at the cognitive and physiological levels In addition childhood sibling relationship quality is examined in terms of how it is correlated with achievement motivation and college GPA in young adulthood The association between the child s personal characteristic with their relationships in family and social environments are also described Furthermore psychological processes affecting post divorce paternal functioning are explored In addition a psycho educational program for advancing children s coping skills and helping them to cope with marital conflict is also examined

Marital Conflict and Children E. Mark Cummings, Patrick T. Davies, 2010-01-04 Presents advances in understanding how growing up in a discordant family affects child adjustment the factors that make certain children more vulnerable than others and what can be done to help Presents a new conceptual framework that draws on current knowledge about family processes parenting attachment and children s emotional physiological cognitive and behavioral development Innovative research methods are explained and promising directions for clinical practice with children and families are discussed From publisher description Parental Efficacy, Attachment, and Child Self-control M. Angela Nievar,2004 The Role of the Father in Child Development Michael E. Lamb,2004 Offers a single source reference for the most recent findings and beliefs related to fathers and fatherhood including such topics as the development of father child relationships gay fathers the effect of divorce on fathers and childrens fathers in violent and neglectful families cross cultural issues of fatherhood and fathers in nonindustrialized cultures The book should help mental health professionals bridge scientific theories to application and practice that teach fathers how to positively influence their children s development Handbook of Child Psychology: Social, emotional, and personality development ,1997 Handbook of Child Psychology, Social, Emotional, and Personality Development William Damon,1998 This four volume handbook is the definitive reference in the field of child development It serves as a sourcebook encyclopedia and research review Maternal Expressed Emotion, Child Behavior Problems, and the Child's Sense of Coherence Shizuka Shimabukuro,2010 Children Living with Domestic Violence Martin C. Calder,Emma L. Howarth,2004 This book attempts to guide professionals on how to draw on the best of theory research and practice wisdom and apply it in a coherent way It includes practice guidance within a procedural framework questions to ask information checklists and some pointers to other texts BOOK JACKET Strengthening Couple Relationships for Optimal Child Development Marc S. Schulz,2010 This book presents cutting edge research and theory on couple relationships with an emphasis on the implications for child development It demonstrates the influence of couple relationships on parenting processes and child development explores the determinants of couple functioning relationship satisfaction and relationship stability and details the mechanisms by which marital difficulties impact children s development and functioning Relationship Processes and Resilience in Children with Incarcerated Parents Julie Poehlmann,J. M. Eddy,Patricia J. Bauer,2013-07-10 Children with incarcerated parents are at risk for a variety of problematic outcomes yet research has rarely examined protective factors or resilience processes that might mitigate such risk in this population In this volume we present findings from fi ve new studies that focus on child or family level resilience processes in children with parents currently or recently incarcerated in jail or prison In the fi rst study empathic responding is examined as a protective factor against aggressive peer relations for 210 elementary school age children of incarcerated parents The second study further examines socially aggressive behaviors with peers with a focus on teasing and bullying in a sample of 61 children of incarcerated mothers Emotion regulation is examined as a possible protective factor The third study contrasts children s placement with maternal grandmothers versus other caregivers in a sample of 138 mothers incarcerated in a medium security state prison The relation between a history of positive attachments between mothers and grandmothers and the current cocaregiving alliance are of particular interest The fourth study examines coparenting communication in depth on the basis of observations of 13 families with young children whose mothers were recently released from jail Finally in the fi

Further study the proximal impacts of a parent management training intervention on individual functioning and family relationships are investigated in a diverse sample of 359 imprisoned mothers and fathers Taken together these studies further our understanding of resilience processes in children of incarcerated parents and their families and set the groundwork for further research on child development and family resilience within the context of parental involvement in the criminal justice system Parental Support, Psychological Control and Behavioral Control Brian K. Barber, Heidi E. Stolz, Joseph A. Olsen, 2005-12-09 This monograph reports on a series of systematic analyses of commonly studies measures of parenting support psychological control and behavioral control The purpose of the studies was to bring more precision to understanding how these dimensions of parenting are linked with measures of adolescent functioning A specialized relationships framework linking the parenting dimensions with adolescent functioning social initiative depression antisocial behavior was derived from past theory and from past empirical work that had tested parts of the framework Structural equation analysis was used to test and refine the framework on a sample of U S adolescents ages 11 17 Next it was tested using the same measurement in 10 additional samples of adolescents ages 13 17 from nations or ethnic groups in Africa Asia Europe the Middle East and North and South America P vii The Effects of Interparental Violence on Witnessing Children Winnifred Maria Regis, 1992
