

How Are Children Affected by Alcoholism?

01

Guilt and Confusion

Children often blame themselves for a parent's drinking, which damages their self-esteem and emotional stability

02

Behavioral Issues

They may show aggression, poor academic performance, or withdrawal, with a higher risk of behavioral disorders (SAMHSA)

03

Adult Coping Problems

Many develop control issues, mistrust, or perfectionism, and are 4 times more likely to struggle with alcohol themselves (Journal of Studies on Alcohol and Drugs)

Children Of Alcoholism:

Children of Alcoholism Judith S. Seixas, 1986-05-14 If one or both of your parents were alcoholics you are still suffering and you are not alone At least 22 million American adults were raised by an alcoholic parent and nearly all of them live with scars both psychological and physical as a consequence Coming from homes filled with loneliness and terror children of alcoholics grow up unable to lead lives free from inexplicable guilt deep insecurity lack of self esteem and intense sadness Now there is help Children of Alcoholism exposes the terrible family secret and draws on interviews with over 200 survivors to share the realities of family alcoholism such as the frequent occurrence of child abuse the ruined family holidays the crazy fantasylike atmosphere of the alcoholic home Children of Alcoholism also discusses in detail how survivors can tend to become alcoholics themselves or marry alcoholic partners confront addictive behavior including alcoholism recognize symptoms openly discuss drinking with their own children Filled with invaluable techniques for reversing destructive patterns and extensive information on therapy and peer support groups Children of Alcoholism offers objective sympathetic advice on how to come to terms with the past and how to seek additional help if necessary The Forgotten Children R. Margaret Cork, 1969 Working with Children of Alcoholics Bryan E. Robinson, J. Lyn Rhoden, 1998 This expanded edition of Working With Children of Alcoholics will be important for social workers psychologists school administrators teachers drug and alcohol counselors and pastoral counselors It is also an excellent supplemental text for practitioners in training and in graduate courses in family and community adjustment problems of youth substance abuse and human services Children of Alcoholics Robert J. Ackerman, 1983 Recovery Herbert L. Gravitz, Julie D. Bowden, 1987-09-15 Questions and answers to help you understand your past overcome your fears Cover subtitle Adult Children of Alcoholics Janet G. Woititz, 2010-01-01 In the 1980 s Janet Woititz broke new ground in our understanding of what it is to be an Adult Child of an Alcoholic In this updated edition of her bestseller she re examines the movement and its inclusion of Adult Children from various dysfunctional family backgrounds who share the same characteristics After decades of working with ACoAs she shares the recovery hints that she has found to work Read Adult Children of Alcoholics to see where the journey began and for ideas on where to go from here Children of Alcoholics/addicts Richard L. Towers, 1989 The purpose of this booklet is to raise the awareness of teachers and other school personnel about the needs and characteristics of the children of alcoholics and addicts and to explain what schools can do to help The booklet discusses 1 risk factors for children of alcoholics and substance abusers including the psychological emotional and developmental consequences of having an alcoholic or addicted parent 2 how the disease of alcoholism and addiction develops progresses and affects the family 3 what the impact of this experience is on the children who come from these homes 4 what to do both within the classroom and outside of it to help these children including drug and alcohol education parental involvement counseling student assistance programs and staff awareness and 5 where to go for information materials and help A three session workshop for school staff

Children of Alcoholics in School is described and the workshop goals are explained to introduce staff to the feelings needs and characteristics of students in families where chemical abuse causes problems to explore family disease and family roles in an addictive family and to identify children who may be in alcoholic families and design an action plan to help them in the school setting ABL

Adult Children of Alcoholics Janet Geringer Woititz,1991 A handbook for adult children of dysfunctional families offers wisdom and information lists thirteen main traits of the group identifies patterns of behavior and features a new section on recovery

Working with Children of Alcoholics Bryan E. Robinson,J. Lyn Rhoden,1997-12-18 Working with Children of Alcoholics was originally published when the plight of children of alcoholics was just beginning to gain widespread public attention It was the first book to provide professionals with a direct step by step approach that shows them not only what to look for when working with children but what they can do to help them Some of the critical topics covered include identifying children of alcoholics establishing effective children s programs treatment strategies for children of alcoholics life and survival in an alcoholic home the intergenerational transmission of alcoholism the psychological adjustment of children of alcoholics health and safety hazards and academic and behavioral concerns Working with Children of Alcoholics includes extensive resources such as names of helpful organizations periodicals therapeutic games and curriculum materials The book will be of interest to social workers public health workers psychologists school administrators drug and alcohol counselors pastoral counselors teachers and treatment centers It makes an excellent supplemental text for graduate and undergraduate courses in family and community adjustment problems of children and youth substance abuse human services and community problems

Broken Bottles, Broken Dreams Charles Deutsch,1982 At least fifteen million American children of school age have severe problems that are caused or exacerbated by a parent s alcoholism This book draws on the experience of a nationally respected model program to show how these children can be helped Part 1 focuses on an understanding of what alcoholism is and is not and its impact on family members Part 2 presents scenarios of persons helping in their various roles examines important support agencies and explains how and why their methods work I recommend the book to anyone with an interest in the treatment and prevention of alcoholism American Journal of Nursing

This book is an invaluable resource for those working with children in a professional capacity Social Work in Health Care

Hope Emily Marlin,1987 More than 22 million American adults were raised by an alcoholic nearly all of them receiving psychological and or physical scars Emily Marlin drawing on her experiences as a therapist marriage counselor and child of an alcoholic provides excellent suggestions for regaining emotional health and building a happy and enriching life

Children of Alcoholism Barbara L. Wood,1987-10-01 In this sensitive and richly rewarding book Barbara L Wood a clinician with many years experience working with adult children of the chemically dependent gives clinicians informed and practical advice on how to treat the damaged self of these individuals She offers strategies for intervention along with step by step principles that tell the therapist how best to create an environment to help patients

Adult Children of

Alcoholics Syndrome Wayne Kritsberg,1988-03-01 A complete self help program for adult children of alcoholics More than 28 million Americans grew up in alcoholic families They bear a painful legacy of confusion fear anger and hurt and they are at shockingly high risk of marrying an alcoholic or becoming alcoholics themselves In this authoritative book Wayne Kritsberg shows how to recognize and remedy the long term effects of the dysfunctional alcoholic family His proven techniques based on extensive clinical experience using the Family Integration System offer real help and real hope for adult children of alcoholics and those they love

I Can Be Me Dianne S. O'Connor,2009-11-09 Has drug or alcohol abuse in your family caused your child to become withdrawn or to act out Is addiction in a family member contributing to upset and stress in your child Do you want to help your child understand the problem and communicate about his her feelings Do you want to help your child develop healthier coping strategies I Can Be Me is a helping book for professionals and parents who want to help children of alcoholic parents Written for children ages 4 to 12 it can be read by a child alone or worked through with a caring adult Simple line drawings and text speak to children in a language they understand and are based on the real experiences of children with addicted parents Written from the perspective of children whose parents are addicted to alcohol and various other drugs this book helps children take off the masks that hide their true feelings and educates them about alcohol or drug abuse in the family Entertaining drawings and simple text make this book easy to understand and invite children to add their own thoughts and feelings Children often feel alone in homes where alcoholism or drug abuse is present I Can Be Me helps children understand more about addiction and realize that they are not to blame for their parents problems Through a series of creative exercises and activities children learn about healthy coping strategies and that they are not alone Eight separate units make this book an ideal companion to counseling or support group sessions Parents or counselors can also use a single section to address the unique concerns of an individual child
