Children Of Alcoholics 1954b:

Children of Alcoholism Barbara L. Wood, 1989 Can Islamic societies embrace democracy In Democracy in Modern Iran Ali Mirsepassi maintains that it is possible demonstrating that Islam is not inherently hostile to the idea of democracy Rather he provides new perspective on how such a political and social transformation could take place arguing that the key to understanding the integration of Islam and democracy lies in concrete social institutions rather than pre conceived ideas the every day experiences rather than abstract theories Mirsepassi an Iranian native provides a rare inside look into the country offering a deep understanding of how Islamic countries like Iran and Iraq can and will embrace democracy Democracy in Modern Iran challenges readers to think about Islam and democracy critically and in a far more nuanced way than is done in black and white dichotomies of Islam vs Democracy or Iran vs the West This essential volume contributes important insights to current discussions creating a more complex conception of modernity in the Eastern world and with it Mirsepassi offers to a broad Western audience a more accurate less clichéd vision of Iran's political reality Adult Children of Alcoholics
