constant fear of detection and a sacrifice of family connectedness The decades long process of becoming completely comfortable with my ultimate identity was psychologically so unnerving that I have only recently felt free to talk about it This is certainly the first time I have ever written about it With these words the fascinating story of Ulla Dentlinger s life history begins Growing up in poor rural Apartheid Namibia in the early 1950s Ulla Dentlinger soon learns that her parents are not prone to reminisce about their family s past The most mundane information about their background is guarded much like a state secret As a child she begins to panic at being asked the question so normal to others Where are you from Only in later years it dawns on her that she had to be a Coloured The sense of conflict increases incrementally Nonetheless after living in Namibia for the first six years of her life she grows up in a white area in Cape Town goes to a white school and bears herself in a German fashion She has in fact jumped the colour line Returning to southern Africa in the 1990s she now openly pursues investigations into her family background Ulla Dentlinger portrays some of her relatives and their intimate painful or straightforward stories as well as her own emotional realisation about her enriching heritage Reports from Commissioners Great Britain.
