Gavin Menzies, Ian Hudson

1421 The Year China Discovered America:

1421 Gavin Menzies, 2008-06-03 On March 8 1421 the largest fleet the world had ever seen set sail from China to proceed all the way to the ends of the earth to collect tribute from the barbarians beyond the seas When the fleet returned home in October 1423 the emperor had fallen leaving China in political and economic chaos The great ships were left to rot at their moorings and the records of their journeys were destroyed Lost in the long self imposed isolation that followed was the knowledge that Chinese ships had reached America seventy years before Columbus and had circumnavigated the globe a century before Magellan And they colonized America before the Europeans transplanting the principal economic crops that have since fed and clothed the world

1421 Gavin Menzies, 2004 Argues that the Chinese discovered America and established colonies there before Columbus and that European explorers such as Magellan and Cook discovered new lands using pre existing Chinese maps

Who Discovered America? Gavin Menzies, Ian Hudson, 2013-10-08 Greatly expanding on his blockbuster 1421 distinguished historian Gavin Menzies uncovers the complete untold history of how mankind came to the Americas offering new revelations and a radical rethinking of the accepted historical record in Who Discovered America The iconoclastic historian's magnum opus Who Discovered America calls into question our understanding of how the American continents were settled shedding new light on the well known discoveries of European explorers including Christopher Columbus In Who Discovered America he combines meticulous research and an adventurer's spirit to reveal astounding new evidence of an ancient Asian seagoing tradition most notably the Chinese that dates as far back as 130 000 years ago Menzies offers a revolutionary new alternative to the Beringia theory of how humans crossed a land bridge connecting Asia and North America during the last Ice Age and provides a wealth of staggering claims that hold fascinating and astonishing implications for the history of mankind

1421 Gavin Menzies, 2005 In 1421 a unique fleet of junks set sail from China Its mission was to explore the earth collecting tributes from the barbarians and uniting the world in Confucian harmony When it returned in 1423 the emperor had fallen leaving China in chaos The great ships were left to rot and their journeys records were destroyed The author pieces together his findings to reveal this lost adventure of exploration and circumnavigation of the globe

Imperial China, 1350-1900 Jonathan Porter, 2016-02-04 This clear and engaging book provides a concise overview of the Ming Qing epoch 1368 1912 China's last imperial age Beginning with the end of the Mongol domination of China in 1368 this five century period was remarkable for its continuity and stability until its downfall in the Revolution of 1911 Viewing the Ming and Qing dynasties as a coherent era characterized by the fruition of diverse developments from earliest times Jonathan Porter traces the growth of imperial autocracy the role of the educated Confucian elite as custodians of cultural authority the significance of ritual as the grounding of political and social order the tension between monarchy and bureaucracy in political discourse the evolution of Chinese cultural identity and the perception of the barbarian and other views of the world beyond China As the climax of traditional Chinese history and the harbinger of modern China in the twentieth century Porter argues that imperial China must be explored for its own sake as well as for the essential foundation it provides in understanding contemporary China and indeed world history writ large 1434: The Year a Chinese Fleet Sailed to Italy and Ignited the Renaissance Gavin Menzies,2009-02-02 In his bestselling book 1421 The Year China Discovered the World Gavin Menzies revealed that it was the Chinese that discovered America not Columbus Now he presents further astonishing evidence that it was also Chinese advances in science art and technology that formed the basis of the European Renaissance and our modern world

1434 Gavin Menzies,2009-10-06 The New York Times bestselling author of 1421 offers another stunning reappraisal of history presenting compelling new evidence that traces the roots of the European Renaissance to Chinese exploration in the fifteenth century The brilliance of the Renaissance laid the foundation of the modern world Textbooks tell us that it came about as a result of a rediscovery of the ideas and ideals of classical Greece and Rome But now bestselling historian Gavin Menzies makes the startling argument that in the year 1434 China then the world s most technologically advanced civilization provided the spark that set the European Renaissance ablaze From that date onward Europeans embraced Chinese intellectual ideas discoveries and inventions all of which form the basis of western civilization today Florence and Venice of the early fifteenth century were hubs of world trade attracting traders from across the globe Based on years of research this marvelous history argues that a Chinese fleet official ambassadors of the emperor arrived in Tuscany in 1434 where they were received by Pope Eugenius IV in Florence The delegation presented the influential pope with a wealth of Chinese learning from a diverse range of fields art geography including world maps that were passed on to Christopher Columbus and Ferdinand Magellan astronomy mathematics printing architecture steel manufacturing military weaponry and more This vast treasure trove of knowledge spread across Europe igniting the legendary inventiveness of the Renaissance including the work of such geniuses as da Vinci Copernicus Galileo and more In 1434 Gavin Menzies combines this long overdue historical reexamination with the excitement of an investigative adventure He brings the reader aboard the remarkable Chinese fleet as it sails from China to Cairo and Florence and then back across the world Erudite and brilliantly reasoned 1434 will change the way we see ourselves our history and our world

China Versus The Us: Who Will Prevail? Alfredo Toro Hardy,2020-06-24 The heralding of ambitions and hardening of geopolitical and military stances by China has given rise to few questions Did China challenge the United States too hard and too soon and by doing so seriously jeopardize its chances of achieving its objectives Can Washington still contain China s ascendancy and retain its current leading status This book attempts to explore these questions and analyse if China has tried to display its strength to America too soon It argues that by comparing the comprehensive national power of the two countries one may be able to answer the above questions

Who was First? Russell Freedman,2007 For a long time most people believed that Christopher Columbus was the first explorer to discover America the first to make a successful round trip voyage across the Atlantic But in recent years as new evidence has come to light our understanding of history has changed We know now that Columbus was among the last explorers to reach the Americas not the first Book jacket
