1967 At The Crossroads:

1967: at the Crossroads, 1987 1967 Janet Kardon, 1987 Crossfire at the Crossroads, Monday Feb. 6, 1967
Tom Luce, 1967 The Industrial Geography of Israel Yehuda Gradus, Shaul Krakover, Eran Razin, 2006-04-10 Israel's industrial geography is unique. The continuing Arab-Israeli conflict has been a primary force behind government intervention in settlement patterns and has led to a major effort to disperse industry. The geopolitical situation has also encouraged a policy of attempted self-reliance especially for defence purposes. These factors combined with an abundant human capital have given Israeli high technology industries a special place in the international division of labour. The absorption of waves of mass immigration has influenced industrial development. Rural industrialisation mainly by the Kibbutz communal settlement movement is another unique feature. The Industrial Geography of Israel presents a comprehensive overview of industrial spatial development of Israel from the Ottoman era to present times evaluating industrial dispersal policy, corporate geography, high technology industries, entrepreneurship and rural industrial development. The spatial development of Israeli industry is set within the broader context of Israel's political and economic development and of global economic change as well as theories of industrial location and regional planning and development. At the Crossroads, 1967* Luke's Stories of Jesus David Lee, 1999-11-01 The current interest in reading the Gospels as narratives has reclaimed aspects of these texts that historical critical approaches failed to respect. The richness of these newer readings can however disguise their limitations as literary critical exercises. Developing Hans Frei's concern for theological reading, David Lee reworks the narratology of the Dutch literary theorist Mieke Bal to produce a theological narrative reading practice that formally respects the text as scripture while leaving open the possible meanings that readers may construct for themselves in the act of reading. Lee demonstrates his approach through readings of the Narrator and the characters Jesus and the Demons as aspects of a composite Lukan narrative.
