1999 Nunavut Handbook:

The 1998 Nunavut Handbook Marion Soublière, 1997 The ... Nunavut Handbook, 1999 Nunavut Generations Ann McElroy, 2007-10-08 Change in arctic populations has not been a sudden phenomenon but rather a gradual process that has occurred over a number of generations In this longitudinal case study McElroy introduces readers to four Baffin Island communities in the eastern Canadian Arctic and focuses on the challenges and hardships they face in transition from hunting gathering lifestyles to wage employment and political participation in towns Through long term fieldwork historical material and life histories collected from elders Nunavut Generations richly illustrates political and ecological change alongside native stability and self determination Inuit Women Janet Mancini Billson, Kyra Mancini, 2007 Inuit Women is the definitive study of the Inuit during a time of rapid change Based on fourteen years of research and fieldwork this analysis focuses on the challenges facing Inuit women as they enter the twenty first century Written shortly after the creation of Nunavut a new province carved out of traditional Inuit homelands in the Canadian North this compelling book combines conclusions drawn from the authors ethnographic research with the stories of Inuit women and men told in their own words In addition to their presentation of the personal portraits and voices of many Inuit respondents Janet Mancini Billson and Kyra Mancini explore global issues the impact of rapid social change and Canadian resettlement policy on Inuit culture women s roles in society and gender relations in Baffin Island in the Eastern Arctic They also include an extensive section on how the newly created territory of Nunavut is impacting the lives of Inuit women and their families Working from a research approach grounded in feminist theory the authors involve their Inuit interviewees as full participants in the process This book stands alone in its attention to Inuit women s issues and lives and should be read by everyone interested in gender relations development modernization globalization and Inuit culture Canadian Book Review Annual, 1999 Canoeing Wild Rivers Cliff Jacobson, 2015-03-01 The 30th Anniversary Edition of the classic Expedition Canoeing has long been considered the premier guide to canoeing and exploring North America s waterways This thirtieth anniversary edition expertly details everything you need to know about paddling the continent s wild rivers Outdoors writer and wilderness canoe guide Cliff Jacobson draws on his thirty plus years of river running to give you sound advice fresh new ideas and advanced techniques for canoeing in the wilderness Completely updated and revised inside you ll find dozens of full color photos how to illustrations source charts canoeing and camping tricks a chapter full of hard won advice from more than twenty five of Jacobson s fellow canoeing experts and a brand new chapter devoted to paddling desert and swamp rivers Look inside to find How to pick a crew Route and trip planning Canoeing and camping gear Navigating by map compass and GPS How to deal with dangerous bears Canoe hazards and rescue Barren land travel Preparation and skills are everything when canoeing wild rivers Take along this guide on all of your canoeing adventures Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mulla, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1999 A revised and updated guide to reference material It contains selective and evaluative entries to guide the enquirer to the best source of reference in each subject area be it journal article CD ROM on line database bibliography encyclopaedia monograph or directory It features full critical annotations and reviewers comments and comprehensive author title and subject indexes The contents include philosophy and psychology religion social sciences sociology statistics politics economics labour and employment land and property business organizations finance and banking and economic surveys economic policies and controls trade and commerce business and management and law public administration social services and welfare education customs and traditions geography biography and history

Senses of Place: Senses of Time G.J. Ashworth, 2017-03-02 Bringing together case studies from Ireland the Netherlands Canada Germany and Mexico this book examines the link between senses of place and senses of time It suggests that not only do place identities change through time but imagined pasts also provide resources which the present selects and packages for its own contemporary purposes and for forwarding to imagined futures The reasons behind the creation of place image are also explored setting them within political and social contexts In its three main sections Heritage in the Creation of Senses of Place Heritage and Conflicting Identities and Heritage and the Creation of Senses of Place the book examines the creation of place identities at the urban rural regional and international scales It questions how senses of place interact with senses of ethnic cultural identity what the roles of government media residents and tourists are in creating senses of place and how and why all these variables change through time
