Best Poems Five Makings:

The Poetry of Clare, Hopkins, Thomas, and Gurney Andrew Hodgson, 2019-12-31 This book attends to four poets John Clare Gerard Manley Hopkins Edward Thomas and Ivor Gurney whose poems are remarkable for their personal directness and distinctiveness It shows how their writing conveys a potently individual quality of feeling perception and experience each poet responds with unusual commitment to the Romantic idea of art as personal expression The book looks closely at the vitality and intricacy of the poets language the personal candour of their subject matter and their sense obdurate but persuasive of their own strangeness As it traces the tact and imagination with which each of the four writers realises the possibilities of individualism in lyric it affirms the vibrancy of their contributions to nineteenth and twentieth century poetry

Best Poems Ivor Gurney, Robert Kelsey Rought Thornton, 1995 Best Poems consists of fair copies Gurney made with few alterations The Book of Five Makings is more a working draft with recastings of the same poems revealing the process by which he brought his art to completion Of the 116 poems in this double volume fewer than a quarter are previously collected In his introduction R K R Thornton Professor of English at the University of Birmingham and editor of Gurney s poems and collected letters sets the books in context Annotations give readers a clear picture of the books as Gurney wanted them to be

John Clare Society Journal, 14 (1995) Richard Mabey, Jonathan Bate, Ronald Blythe, W. John Coletta, Tim Fulford, Eric Robinson, L.J. Swingle, Greg Crossan, The official Journal of the John Clare Society published annually to reflect the interest in and approaches to the life and work of the poet John Clare

Modern English War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2006-07-20 Tim Kendall s study offers the fullest account to date of a tradition of modern English war poetry Stretching from the Boer War to the present day it focuses on many of the twentieth century s finest poets combatants and non combatants alike and considers how they address the ethical challenges of making art out of violence Poetry we are often told makes nothing happen But war makes poetry happen the war poet cannot regret and must exalt at even the most appalling experiences Modern English War Poetry not only assesses the problematic relationship between war and its poets it also encourages an urgent reconsideration of the modern poetry canon and the too often marginalised position of war poetry within it The aesthetic and ethical values on which canonical judgements have been based are carefully scrutinized via a detailed analysis of individual poets The poets discussed include Thomas Hardy Rudyard Kipling Wilfred Owen Charlotte Mew Edward Thomas Ivor Gurney W H Auden Keith Douglas Ted Hughes and Geoffrey Hill

Collected Poems Ivor Gurney, 2004 P J Kavanagh s 1982 edition of the Collected Poems established Ivor Gurney 1890 1937 as one of the most original poets of the early twentieth century His experiences in the First World War his love of his native Gloucestershire countryside were sources of a unique poetic voice Vigorous lyrical and passionate In this new substantially revised edition Gurney can be enjoyed in his entirety by a new generation of readers The poems have been re ordered to take into account new work on Gurney the texts corrected from the archive and editorial material substantially revised while retaining P J Kavanagh s extensive original
