The New York Times Book Review Index, 1896-1970: Subject index, 1973

The Cinema of Urban Crisis Lawrence Webb, 2025-10-01 In the 1970s cities across the United States and Western Europe faced a deep social and political crisis that challenged established principles of planning economics and urban theory At the same time film industries experienced a parallel process of transition the effects of which rippled through the aesthetic and narrative form of the decade's cinema. The Cinema of Urban Crisis traces a new path through the cinematic legacy of the 1970s by drawing together these intertwined histories of urban and cultural change. Bringing issues of space and place to the fore, the book unpacks the geographical and spatial dynamics of film movements from the New Hollywood to the New German Cinema, showing how the crisis of the seventies and the emerging postindustrial economy brought film and the city together in new configurations. Chapters cover a range of cities on both sides of the Atlantic from New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco to London, Paris and Berlin. Integrating analysis of film industries and production practices with detailed considerations of individual texts, the book offers strikingly original close analyses of a wide range of films from New Hollywood: The Conversation, The King of Marvin Gardens, Rocky to European art cinema: Alice in the Cities, The Passenger, Tout va Bien and popular international genres such as the political thriller and the crime film. Focusing on the aesthetic and representational strategies of these films, the book argues that the decade's cinema engaged with and helped to shape the passage from the urban crisis of the late sixties to the neoliberal urban renaissance of the early eighties. Splicing ideas from film studies with urban geography and architectural history, the book offers a fresh perspective on a rich period of film history and opens up new directions for critical engagement between film and urban studies.

Bestsellers (Routledge Revivals) John Sutherland, 2010-10-04 First published in 1981, this book offers a study of British and American popular fiction in the 1970s, a decade in which the quest for the superseller came to dominate the lives of publishers on both sides of the Atlantic. Illustrated by examples of the lurid incidents that catapulted so many books into the bestseller charts, this comprehensive study covers the work of Robbins, Hailey and Maclean, the bodice ripper, the disaster craze, horror, war stories and media tie-ins such as The Godfather, Jaws and Star Wars. 80 Years of Best Sellers, 1895-1975 Alice Payne Hackett, James Henry Burke, 1977 Best Sellers, 1981 Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation Charlotte Templin, 1995 A must read for anyone interested in how gender, popularity and financial success affect an author's literary reputation. Choice: A pioneering book, Templin demonstrates clearly that the literary canon is not only about what people like to read; it concerns what ideas and values will prevail in the society at large. Jay Parini, author of The Last Station. Templin raises important issues about the peculiar position of the woman writer in the popular imagination. Nancy A. Walker, author of Feminist Alternatives. New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1973
