

The Best Years of our Lives

Text 1

"Here in Japan we work hard. Examinations are very important. Here we have to study after school for about two hours at "juku", a special school which prepares us for exams. Then we go home and have to do our school homework. But we also have to find time for sports and music. In my school, we have to tidy up our classrooms every day, we clean the whole school once a month. This teaches us to work together as a team."

Keichi, Japan

Text 2

"I attend an alternative school in England. It's different from most schools. I don't have to go to lessons, and I can choose which lessons I like the best. I can wear the clothes I want to. And all the pupils at the school make the school rules."

Fiona, England

Text 3

"I live in the middle of Australia and there isn't a school near my house. So I study by radio, and use the Internet. A teacher sometimes visits us too. I've got a sister and a brother, we do a lot of work together. We do projects, and we talk to other kids. It's easier now we use the Internet. We have a web camera, so we can see science experiments and things like that. But we don't have to sit in a classroom or keep quiet."

Danny, Australia

Best Years Of Their Lives Pupils Experiences Of School:

The Best Years of Their Lives? Cedric Cullingford,2003-12-16 Based on structured research and interviews with pupils in years 10 and 11 15 DDS 16 years old about their views of the purpose of school and their own future employment and the way the two connect this book offers a blistering critique of the purpose of education and its ability to prepare children for the world of work The issues raised include the purpose of school the nature and quality of the curriculum whether their time was well spent whether what they learned was relevant who influenced them their views of industry and the world outside Out of the mouths of babes the truth comes tumbling and the result is a shocking indictment of an educational system that fails to deliver what it sets out to achieve

Primary Education: The Key Concepts Denis Hayes,2006-05-11 Presenting a balance of theoretical insight and practical advice this text is a clear and accessible guide to the key issues relating to primary education Alphabetically arranged and fully cross referenced to ensure ease of use entries include both curriculum specific terms as well as those that are more generic such as assessment objectives coping strategies differentiation behaviour special needs time management Written by an experienced teacher and lecturer this is a concise yet comprehensive text that takes into account the everyday realities of teaching Readable and user friendly it is a first class resource for the primary practitioner at all levels

The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning Denis Hayes,2010-10-04 The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential education writers in recent times to provide insight guidance and clarity about key issues affecting practitioners at all levels

Why Do We Educate? David L. Coulter,John R. Wiens,Gary D. Fenstermacher,2009-03-23 This book reflects the editors concerns that too many publicdiscussions of education are dominated by too few ideas and isintended to serve as a kind of handbook for those who wish to enterthe conversation about education A work of impressive scholarship accessible to the generalreader A unique collection of essays written by internationallyrecognized and emerging thinkers from the field of education andrelated disciplines Contributors among others include Anthony Appiah Princeton Seyla Benhabib Yale Eamonn Callan Stanford Joseph Dunne St Patrick s College Ireland Kieran Egan Simon Fraser Ursula Franklin Toronto Nel Noddings Stanford Martha Nussbaum Chicago and Diane Ravitch New York

Young People and Offending Martin Stephenson,2006-11 This book seeks to explore the full extent of the implications of the relationship between education and youth crime in terms of social policy and public opinion It will be essential reading for youth justice practitioners as well as students taking courses on youth crime and youth justice or on youth justice or probation training courses

The Church School Journal ,1922

Effective Teaching in Schools Chris Kyriacou,2009 Written by best selling author of Essential Teaching Skills this research informed guide is the perfect introduction to what defines good teaching Bridging the gap between theory and practice it enables trainees and new teachers to build on theoretical work where it matters in the classroom

Childhood Cedric Cullingford,2007 This is a forensic analysis of the experience of childhood from the children's point of view. It demonstrates through case studies how the influences of home, the school and the neighbourhood are interpreted. The pupils reveal how they form their attitudes to life, to themselves and to society. They reveal how they learn to form their future conduct through their analysis of school.
