Storytelling for Sustainability in Higher Education Petra Molthan-Hill, Heather Luna, Tony Wall, Helen Puntha, Denise Baden, 2020-03-25 To be a storyteller is an incredible position from which to influence hearts and minds and each one of us has the capacity to utilise storytelling for a sustainable future This book offers unique and powerful insights into how stories and storytelling can be utilised within higher education to support sustainability literacy Stories can shape our perspective of the world around us and how we interact with it and this is where storytelling becomes a useful tool for facilitating understanding of sustainability concepts which tend to be complex and multifaceted The craft of storytelling is as old as time and has influenced human experience throughout the ages The conscious use of storytelling in higher education is likewise not new although less prevalent in certain academic disciplines what this book offers is the opportunity to delve into the concept of storytelling as an educational tool regardless of and beyond the boundaries of subject area Written by academics and storytellers the book is based on the authors own experiences of using stories within teaching from a story of the Ecology of Law to the exploration of sustainability in accounting and finance via contemporary cinema Practical advice in each chapter ensures that ideas may be put into practice with ease In addition to examples from the classroom the book also explores wider uses of storytelling for communication and sense making and ways of assessing student storytelling work It also offers fascinating research insights for example in addressing the question of whether positive utopian stories relating to climate change will have a stronger impact on changing the behaviour of readers than will dystopian stories Everyone working as an educator should find some inspiration here for their own practice on using storytelling and stories to co

design positive futures together with our students

Storytelling and Ecology Anthony Nanson, 2021-06-17 Finalist in the PROSE Award 2022 for Language Linguistics Awarded Honors at the Storytelling World Awards 2022 Linking the ongoing ecological crisis with contemporary conditions of alienation and disenchantment in modern society this book investigates the capacity of oral storytelling to reconnect people to the natural world and enchant and renew their experience of nature place and their own existence in the world Anthony Nanson offers an in depth examination of how a diverse ecosystem of oral stories and the dynamics of storytelling as an activity can catalyse different kinds of conversation and motivation helping us resist the discourse of powerful vested interests Detailed analysis of traditional true life and fictional stories shows how spoken narrative language can imbue landscapes creatures and experiences with enchantment and mediate between the inner world of consciousness and outer world of ecology and community A pioneering ecolinguistic and ecocritical study of oral storytelling in the modern world Storytelling and Ecology offers insight into the ways that sharing stories in each other's embodied presence can open up spaces for transformation in our relationships with the ecological world around us

Conceptualisation and Exposition Lina Varotsi, 2019-04-25 While the concept of the fictional character has been widely discussed at interdisciplinary level a foundational theory of character creation is yet to follow As a result creative writing students and beginner writers refer to post construction analysis as well as the step by step advice often suggested by popular writing manuals Aiming to fill this gap and at the same time reconcile approaches in writing and criticism this book proposes a theory of character creation based on the in depth analysis of the concept as well its place within the narrative The approach suggested herein consists of two interrelated stages conceptualisation and exposition Conceptualisation entails the in depth understanding of what constitutes the fictional character as well as the dynamics of its correlation with the reader the author and its real counterpart the human person Exposition refers to the conveyance of such understanding on paper Viewing creative writing as an art and craft the author builds her theory on the notion that comprehension of the world and the concept of character itself is an essential prerequisite in order to construct consistent and believable fictional persons Varotsi also introduces her four stages of creation Observation Perception Empathy and Imagination to inspire a method of work according to which personal craftsmanship and artistry can be successfully combined with pedagogic technique

British Literature and Spirituality Franz Karl Wöhrer, John S. Bak, 2013 This book reflects the current state of research in the field of the spiritual in British literature where spirituality is understood as a culturally determined universal phenomenon or a factuality of humanity consisting of the living apprehension of the Sacred during rare gratuitous moments of illumination With critical essays by scholars working in various disciplines English studies music the arts psychology theology etc the book explores a corpus of encoded narratives of as well as reflections on the Sacred in British literature from the Late Middle Ages to the present Multi disciplinary in nature and interdisciplinary in method British Literature and Spirituality illustrates the hermeneutic potential of readings that transcend the disciplinary boundaries of
