Reconstructing American Historical Cinema J.E. Smyth,2006-10-27 In Reconstructing American Historical Cinema From Cimarron to Citizen Kane J E Smyth dramatically departs from the traditional understanding of the relationship between film and history By looking at production records scripts and contemporary reviews Smyth argues that certain classical Hollywood filmmakers were actively engaged in a self conscious and often critical filmic writing of national history Her volume is a major reassessment of American historiography and cinematic historians from the advent of sound to the beginning of wartime film production in 1942 Focusing on key films such as Cimarron 1931 The Public Enemy 1931 Scarface 1932 Ramona 1936 A Star Is Born 1937 Jezebel 1938 Young Mr Lincoln 1939 Gone with the Wind 1939 Stagecoach 1939 and Citizen Kane 1941 Smyth explores historical cinema s connections to popular and academic historiography historical fiction and journalism providing a rich context for the industry s commitment to American history Rather than emphasizing the divide between American historical cinema and historical writing Smyth explores the continuities between Hollywood films and history written during the first four decades of the twentieth century from Carl Becker s famous Everyman His Own Historian to Howard Hughes s Scarface to Margaret Mitchell and David O Selznick s Gone with the Wind Hollywood s popular and often controversial cycle of historical films from 1931 to 1942 confronted issues as diverse as frontier racism and women s experiences in the nineteenth century South the decline of American society following the First World War the rise of Al Capone and the tragic history of Hollywood s silent era Looking at rarely discussed archival material Smyth focuses on classical Hollywood filmmakers adaptation and scripting of traditional historical discourse and their critical revision of nineteenth and twentieth century American history Reconstructing American Historical Cinema uncovers Hollywood s diverse and conflicted attitudes toward American history This text is a fundamental challenge the prevailing scholarship in film history and cultural studies
