Better Living Mark Kingwell,1999     In Pursuit of Happiness Mark Kingwell,2000 Mark Kingwell is an associate professor of philosophy at the University of Toronto     Toward a New Era of Learning: Untangling Our Next Public Education Wilson Winnitoy,2015-05-07 What will our next public education system and its schools be like It is a good question but not one unfortunately that is on everyone s mind at least not for now We are too busy trying to fix the system we have too busy to look ahead We do not have to look very far Our next public education system and its new approach to learning is already revealing itself It is visible in the pressures from parents and their ceaseless efforts to influence profoundly the quality of the experience their children have in school It is visible in the creative efforts of many dedicated teachers and school administrators as they surmount day after day the dehumanizing tendencies of large scale mass education This book is a look into the future We must rethink the meaning of the values and beliefs that drove the creation of the public schools over 100 years ago We must translate them into a new kind of learning that responds to the challenges and opportunities of our time and place in history     Stories of the Middle Space Deborah C. Bowen,2010 Postmodernism s critics often accuse the movement of being dangerously amoral because of its apparent wariness of concepts such as truth ethics and justice Stories of the Middle Space explores the possibility of postmodernism with a conscience and examines a variety of British and Canadian postmodern fiction to show how twentieth century critical theory can be brought into fruitful dialogue with a faith based perspective Highlighting the wide variety of ethical concerns considered by writers such as Timothy Findley Thomas King Carol Shields Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Salman Rushdie Deborah Bowen makes the case for a new category of postmodern realism and shows how contemporary stories about the real and the good are constructed Applying theoretical insights from Emmanuel Levinas and Mikhail Bakhtin Bowen investigates categories of postmodern realism such as magic realism parody and metafiction while laying the groundwork for Christian readings of a medium that is often perceived as largely irreligious An illuminating study of well known contemporary writers Stories of the Middle Space is a critically nuanced and methodologically innovative work that reads the postmodern from a faith based perspectives to create new literary insights Deborah Bowen addresses the ethical concerns of a wide variety of postmodern fiction from a faith based perspective that engages with the decentred discourses of post structuralism She suggests that a focus on the middle space between language and the world not only provides new insights into the construction of the real and the notion of a good story but also resituates the possibility of Christian reading in a largely post Christian era BOOK JACKET
