Technology and the Logic of American Racism Sarah E. Chinn,2000-09-01 In this book Sarah E Chinn pulls together what seems to be opposite discourses the information driven languages of law and medicine and the subjective logics of racism to examine how racial identity has been constructed in the United States over the past century She examines a range of primary social case studies such as the American Red Cross lamentable decision to segregate the blood of black and white donors during World War II and its ramifications for American culture and more recent examples that reveal the racist nature of criminology such as the recent trial of O J Simpson Among several key American literary texts she looks at Mark Twain s Pudd nhead Wilson a novel whose plot turns on issues of racial identity and which was written at a time when scientific and popular interest in evidence of the body such as fingerprinting was at a peak

European Integration and the Postmodern Condition Peter Van Ham,2013-02-01 This is the first book to look at the process of European integration by drawing on both established and new trends in postmodern thinking and analysis The book asks how we can study the process of European integration in the current climate and maps out the central elements of the academic debate dealing with the future of integration and Europe in general The author stimulates fresh readings of the European issue encouraging the development of new analytical horizons This is a significant cutting edge contribution to debates in politics comparative politics and

European studies Rethinking Australian Citizenship Wayne Hudson, John Kane, 2000-06 The notion of citizenship is now being taken up internationally as a way to rethink questions of social cohesion and social justice In Europe the concept of national identity is under close scrutiny while the pressures of globalizing markets and the power of transnational corporations everywhere raise questions about the true place and meaning of citizenship in civil society In Australia a traditional view of citizens belonging to a single nation made up of one people with a special relationship to one land has been thrown open to challenge by a range of differing perspectives Rethinking Australian Citizenship considers the major debates Some chapters look at contemporary theoretical debates while others reinvent Australian citizenship from a particular perspective on civil life The result is a rich and coherent volume that shows the diverse ways in which Australian citizenship can be rethought Citizenship, Democracy and Higher Education in Europe, Canada and the USA J. Laker, C. Naval, K. Mrnjaj, 2014-06-23 Citizenship democracy and human rights have always been central to higher education and increasing globalization has amplified their urgency and complexity This volume explores conceptual theoretical and policy implications for post secondary education engaging with these topics comparing the USA Canada Eastern Europe and Western Europe Caught in the Middle Demetrios G. Papademetriou, Deborah Waller Meyers, 2001 This text provides a look into the workings and realities of border communities along five international borders US Canada US Mexico Germany Poland Russia China and Russia Kazkahstan It focuses on cross border initiatives that contribute insights to daily lives and local perspectives Toward a Discourse of Consent Gabriel Villaronga, 2004-08-30 Focuses on the interaction between American authorities the Popular Democratic Party PPD and its multiple supporters that informed colonial politics in Puerto Rico Immigration and Asylum Matthew J. Gibney, Randall Hansen, 2005-06-21 A comprehensive and timely examination of the history and current status of immigrants and refugees their stories the events that led to their movement and the place of these movements in contemporary history and politics Immigration and Asylum From 1900 to the Present is an accessible and up to date introduction to the key concepts terms personalities and real world issues associated with the surge of immigration from the beginning of the 20th century to the present It focuses on the United States but is also the first encyclopedic work on the subject that reflects a truly global perspective With contributions from the world s foremost authorities on the subject Immigration and Asylum offers nearly 200 entries organized around four themes immigration and asylum the major migrating groups around the world expulsions and other forced population movements and the politics of migration In addition to basic entries the work includes in depth essays on important trends events and current conditions There is no better resource for exploring just how profoundly the voluntary and forced movement of asylum seekers and refugees has transformed the world and what that transformation means to us today Asian and Pacific Migration Journal ,1998 Curriculum Issues in Contemporary Education S.
