Irony of Theology and the Nature of Religious Thought

Donald Wiebe, 1990-12-01 In a careful re evaluation of the works of L vy Bruhl Wiebe establishes the coherence of L vy Bruhl s classic distinction between primitive or mythopoeic and scientific thought maintaining that religious thinking is mythopoeic in nature while theology which thinks about religion is related to modern Western scientific thinking The pre Socratic philosophers Wiebe shows developed a form of rational thought radically different from the religious mythopoeic thought that preceded it Although Plato was concerned with recovery of the pre philosophic wisdom of ancient Greece he attempted this within a rational philosophic structure Wiebe argues that Christian thought originally mythopoeic changed rapidly under the influence of Hellenistic culture and that the Platonization of Christianity introduced an element of philosophic thinking which would eventually undermine its mythopoeic essence In clarifying the nature of religious thought and its relation to religion Wiebe provides a sound basis for the development of a general theory of religion While of particular interest to philosophers theologians and students and scholars of the study of religion Wiebe s study draws upon sources as diverse as philosophy history anthropology and sociology and will therefore interest anyone involved in these disciplines as well The Concept of Faith William Lad Sessions, 1994 Faith lies at the heart of human life and not just in religious contexts But just what is faith In this book William Lad Sessions ventures a new approach to this age old problem Viewing it in global terms he provides an effective and insightful set of analytical tools for deepening our understanding of the ideas of belief Dogmatics I Emil Brunner, 2025-04-24 One of the great twentieth century works of theology Emil Brunner s Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century The first volume serves as an introduction to Brunner s view of dogmatics setting out the nature position and necessity of dogmatics before exploring the many facets of the doctrine of God In detailed vigorous explanation Brunner considers the nature and will of God including his name his holiness his wisdom and his glory Thorough insightful and extensive this first volume is an illuminating beginning to this series The second volume explores the fundamental concepts of the protestant doctrine from creation and the creator to man s position within creation sin and its consequences and the saving work of Jesus Brunner explores all of the possibilities of these fundamentals and his detailed thoughtful arguments are designed as he says to set us free to have a faith which is based on nothing save the Love of God revealed in Jesus Christ The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God s self revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self communication Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers The Truly Infinite Universe David James Stewart,2019-06-14 The discoveries of general relativity and quantum mechanics in the 20th century provide the perfect opportunity for Hegel s thought to become more topical than it has ever been By bringing speculative philosophy into conversation with quantum cosmology this book develops Hegel s metaphysics of true infinitude and Hawking s theory on the origins of spacetime in tandem providing a compelling rationale for the idea that the universe is a self generating self organizing self enclosed whole Ever sensitive to the complex relationship of scientific philosophical and theological issues in theoretical cosmology the study brings a fresh perspective to the unique brand of metaphysical theology underlying speculative philosophy and offers a new way of conducting transdisciplinary work involving Hegelian thought This is essential reading for Hegel scholars Hawking scholars those interested in philosophical cosmology the ontology of the quantum void the realism vs idealism debate infinitude imaginary time and dialectical materialism and those compelled by post classical approaches to theology Our Faith and the Facts ,1927 The Pauline Idea of Faith in Its Relation to Jewish and Hellenistic Religion William Henry Paine Hatch,1917 Hume’s Reflection on Religion Miguel A. Badía Cabrera,2001-08-31 Considering the Scotsman David Hume 1711 76 to be the most important influential and studied philosopher to have written in English Badia Cabrera philosophy U of Puerto Rico Rio Piedras could not resist the temptation to translate his 1966 Le reflexion de David Hume en torno a la religion from the Spanish into English He offers a significantly different view of his work on religion and natural theology than has appeared in the anglophone tradition Among the aspects he examines are the historical setting of his investigation of religion the ethical depreciation of religion and the rejection of miracles c Book News Inc Thinking Theologically about the Divine Ideas Benjamin R. DeSpain,2022-05-16 Thinking Theologically traces Aquinas s subtle grammatical and thematic engagements with the doctrine of the divine ideas throughout the Summa Theologiae This study offers new insights into the contributions of Aquinas s doctrine to debates about eschatology christology providence natural law virtue and creation s participation in the trinitarian life of God It argues that Aquinas adapts the doctrine to support his pedagogical goal of guiding readers from the confession of faith to the wisdom of sacra doctrina In turn this demonstrates that Aquinas s reading of the divine ideas reinforces his understanding of the dynamic exchange between philosophical reasoning and theological inquiry The Philosophy of Religion on the Basis of Its History: Schelling to the present day Otto Pfliederer,1887 Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,1895 The Christian Science Journal ,1928 The Science of Moral Nature Considered. Revised Edition. And an Introductory Discourse on Two Essays of Mr. David Hume, Viz. “Of the Idea of Necessary Connection,” and “of a Providence and Future State.” [Nos. 7 and 11 of Hume's “Philosophical Essays”.] George Giles VINCENT,1856 “An” Essay Concerning Human Understanding John Locke,1894 Inland Educator and Indiana School Journal ,1901 The Psychology of Religion Charles Conant Josey,1927 Queen's Quarterly ,1908 Spirit and mind polarity, or The disentanglement of ideas Arthur Young,1874
