Between Jerusalem And Benares:

Between Jerusalem and Benares Hananya Goodman,2016-03-22 This book stands at the crossroads between Jerusalem and Benares and opens a long awaited conversation between two ancient religious traditions It represents the first serious attempt by a group of eminent scholars of Judaic and Indian studies to take seriously the cross cultural resonances among the Judaic and Hindu traditions The essays in the first part of the volume explore the historical connections and influences between the two traditions including evidence of borrowed elements and the adaptation of Jewish Indian communities to Hindu culture The essays in the second part focus primarily on resonances between particular conceptual complexes and practices in the two traditions including comparative analyses of representations of Veda and Torah legal formulations of dharma and halakhah and conceptions of union with the Divine in Hindu Tantra and Kabbalah Jewish Approaches to Hinduism Richard G. Marks,2021-09-16 This book explores past expressions of the Jewish interest in Hinduism in order to learn what Hinduism has meant to Jews living mainly in the 12th through the 19th centuries India and Hinduism though never at the center of Jewish thought claim a place in its history in the picture Jews held of the wider world of other religions and other human beings Each chapter focuses on a specific author or text and examines the literary context as well as the cultural context within and outside Jewish society that provided images and ideas about India and its religions Overall the volume constructs a history of ideas that changed over time with different writers in different settings It will be especially relevant to scholars interested in Jewish thought comparative religion interreligious dialogue and intellectual history The World of the Banaras Weaver Vasanthi Raman,2019-08-05 This book is a fascinating investigation into how communalism plays out in everyday India Using the metaphor of tana bana the warp and the weft of the Banarasi sari the author reproduces the interwoven life of Hindu Muslim relations in the Banarasi sari industry As the city of Banaras in Uttar Pradesh takes the centre stage as the site of this ethnographic study the author documents the dissonance in representations of Banaras as a sacred Hindu city and its essential plural character The volume examines in depth the lives of Banaras Muslims in the social and economic matrix of the sari industry highlights how women negotiate between home family and their place in the artisanal industry and sheds light on their fast changing world of the Banaras weavers and their responses to it With a new introduction and fresh data the second edition looks at the subsequent developments in the weaving industry over the last decade This volume will be of immense interest to scholars and researchers of social anthropology gender studies development studies sociology and South Asian studies Rituals in Interreligious Dialogue Marcel Poorthuis,2020-04-30 Rituals are back on stage today Until recently they were regarded as an obsolete and even incomprehensible part of religions relegated to the background while ethics and spirituality attracted more focus However the realisation is growing that rituals represent the treasure of religious memory They connect the human being to the past and to the community that surrounds her or him However what happens to rituals when different religions meet This book shows that a great deal can be learned by taking rituals seriously This holds good for the rich treasure of rituals within religions such as Judaism Islam Hinduism and Christianity Only by recognizing these treasures can new possibilities for rituals in interreligious encounters be explored

Visualizing Space in Banaras Martin Gaenzle, Jörg Gengnagel, 2006
The city of Banaras is widely known as a unique impressive and particularly ancient historical place But for many it is above all a universal cosmic and in a sense timeless sacred space Both of these seemingly contrasting depictions contribute to how the city is experienced by its inhabitants or visitors and there is a great variety of sometimes competing views Kasi the Luminous the ancient Crossing the city of Death the place of Hindu Muslim encounter and syncretism the cosmopolitan centre of learning etc The present volume deals with the multiple ways this urban site is visualized imagined and culturally represented by different actors and groups The forms of visualizations are manifold and include buildings paintings drawings panoramas photographs traditional and modern maps as well as verbal and mental images The major focus will thus be on visual media which are of special significance for the representation of space But this cannot be divorced from other forms of expressions which are part of the local life world Lebenswelt The contributions look at local as well as exogenous constructions of the rich topography of Kasi and show that these imaginations and constructions are not static but always embedded in social and cultural practices of representation often contested and never complete

Words Between Worlds John Dominelli, 2023-11-30 In 1974 when John Dominelli was twenty years old he left his home in Port Coquitlam British Columbia on what he originally thought would be a six month working holiday in New Zealand However not long into his journey feeling the seductive pull of the vast and mysterious world what started as a planned sojourn eventually turned into an epic three year spiritual odyssey taking him from New Zealand to Australia Asia India Europe and many points between John s journey was interrupted and enriched by a psycho emotional meltdown two serious illnesses a powerful psychedelic interlude with psilocybin mushrooms and a mystical encounter with Nisargadatta Maharaj the now well known sage from Bombay An epic coming of age memoir that is part love letter to a bygone age and part inspirational text stirring a desire in readers to seek out a life less ordinary

Power, Piety, and People Michael Dumper, 2020-07-14 Conflicts in cities that have particular religious significance often become intense protracted and violent Why are holy cities so frequently contested and how can these conflicts be mediated and resolved In Power Piety and People Michael Dumper explores the causes and consequences of contemporary conflicts in holy cities He explains how common features of holy cities such as powerful and autonomous religious hierarchies income from religious endowments the presence of sacred sites and the performance of ritual activities that affect other communities can combine to create tension Power Piety and People offers five case studies of important disputes beginning with Jerusalem often seen as the paradigmatic example of a holy city in conflict Dumper also discusses Córdoba where the Islamic history of its Mosque Cathedral poses challenges to the control exercised by the Roman Catholic Church Banaras where competing Muslim and Hindu claims to sacred sites threaten the fragile equilibrium that exists in the city Lhasa where the Communist Party of China severely restricts the ancient practice of Tibetan Buddhism and George Town in Malaysia a rare example of a city with many different religious communities whose leaders have successfully managed intergroup conflicts Applying the lessons drawn from these cities to a broader global urban landscape this book offers scholars and policy makers new insights into a pervasive category of conflict that often appears intractable
