Bestaire Damour:

Master Richard's Bestiary of Love and Response Richard (de Fournival),2000 This affordable reprint edition of the beautifully illustrated translation of Richard de Fournival s Bestiary of Love and the anonymous Response makes this medieval examination of the nature of love accessible to students and the general reader Beasts of Love Jeanette M. A. Beer,2003-01-01 In Le Bestiare d amour and the Response a medieval chancellor s erotic bestiary to a woman is countered by the woman s passionate protest against the cleric s misogynistic presuppositions Beer presents a close linear reading of the two literary texts Le Bestiaire D'Amour Richard,2016-05-20 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Key Figures in Medieval Europe Richard K. Emmerson,2013-10-18 From emperors and queens to artists and world travelers from popes and scholars to saints and heretics Key Figures in Medieval Europe brings together in one volume the most important people who lived in medieval Europe between 500 and 1500 Gathered from the biographical entries from the on going series the Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages these A Z biographical entries discuss the lives of over 575 individuals who have had a historical impact in such areas as politics religion or the arts Individuals from places such as medieval England France Germany Iberia Italy and Scandinavia are included as well as those from the Jewish and Islamic worlds A thematic outline is included that lists people not only by categories but also by regions For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages website Le Bestiaire D'amour Rime A. ED. Thordstein, Stolen Song Eliza Zingesser,2020-03-15 Stolen Song documents the act of cultural appropriation that created a founding moment for French literary history the rescripting and domestication of troubadour song a prestige corpus in the European sphere as French This book also documents the simultaneous creation of an alternative point of origin for French literary history a body of faux archaic Occitanizing songs Most scholars would find the claim that troubadour poetry is the origin of French literature uncomplicated and uncontroversial However Stolen Song shows that the Frenchness of this tradition was invented constructed and confected by francophone medieval poets and compilers keen to devise their own literary history Stolen Song makes a major contribution to medieval studies both by exposing this act of cultural appropriation as the origin of the French canon and by elaborating a new approach to questions of political and cultural identity Eliza Zingesser shows that these questions usually addressed on the level of narrative and theme can also be fruitfully approached through formal linguistic and manuscript oriented tools Routledge Revivals: Key Figures in Medieval Europe \(2006\) Richard Emmerson,2017-07-05 First published in 2006 Key Figures in Medieval Europe brings together in one volume the most important people who lived in medieval Europe between 500 and 1500 Gathered from the biographical entries from the series Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages these A Z biographical entries discuss the lives of over 575 individuals who have had a historical impact in such areas as politics religion and the arts It includes individuals from places such as medieval England France Germany Iberia Italy and Scandinavia as well as those from the Jewish and Islamic worlds In one convenient volume students scholars and interested readers will find the biographies of the people whose actions beliefs creations and writings shaped the Middle Ages one of the most fascinating periods of world history From Song to Book Sylvia Huot,2019-05-15 As the visual representation of an essentially oral text Sylvia Huot points out the medieval illuminated manuscript has a theatrical performative quality She perceives the tension between implied oral performance and real visual artifact as a fundamental aspect of thirteenth and fourteenth century poetics In this generously illustrated volume Huot examines manuscript texts both from the performance oriented lyric tradition of chanson courtoise or courtly love lyric and from the self consciously literary tradition of Old French narrative poetry She demonstrates that the evolution of the lyrical romance and dit narrative poems which incorporate thematic and rhetorical elements of the lyric was responsible for a progressive redefinition of lyric poetry as a written medium and the emergence of an explicitly written literary tradition uniting lyric and narrative poetics Huot first investigates the nature of the vernacular book in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries analyzing organization page layout rubrication and illumination in a series of manuscripts She then describes the relationship between poetics and manuscript format in specific texts including works by widely read medieval authors such as Guillaume de Lorris Jean de Meun and Guillaume de Machaut as well as by lesser known writers including Nicole de Margival and Watriquet de Couvin Huot focuses on the writers characteristic modifications of lyric poetics their use of writing and performance as theme their treatment of the poet as singer or writer and of the lady as implied reader or listener and the ways in which these features of the text were elaborated by scribes and illuminators Her readings reveal how medieval poets and book makers conceived their common project and how they distinguished their respective roles Shaping Courtliness in Medieval France Daniel E. O'Sullivan,Laurie Shepard,2013 The question of what medieval courtliness was both as a literary influence and as a historical reality is debated in this volume The concept of courtliness forms the theme of this collection of essays Focused on works written in the Francophone world between the twelfth and fifteenth centuries they examine courtliness as both an historical privilege and aliterary ideal and as a concept that operated on and was informed by complex social and economic realities

Several essays reveal how courtliness is subject to satire or is the subject of exhortation in works intended for noblemen and women not to mention ambitious bourgeois Others more strictly literary in their focus explore the witty thoughtful and innovative responses of writers engaged in the conscious process of elevating the new vernacular culture through the articulation of its complexities and contradictions The volume as a whole uniting philosophical theoretical philological and cultural approaches demonstrates that medieval courtliness is an ideal that fascinates us to this day It is thus a fitting tribute to the scholarship of Matilda Tomaryn Bruckner in its exploration of the profound and wide ranging ideas that define her contribution to the field DANIEL E O SULLIVAN is Associate Professor of French at the University of Mississippi LAURIE SHEPHARD is Associate Professor of Italian at Boston College in Chestnut Hill Massachusetts Contributors Peter Haidu Donald Maddox Michel Andr Bossy Kristin Burr Joan Tasker Grimbert David Hult Virgine Greene Logan Whalen Evelyn Birge Vitz Elizabeth W Poe Daniel E O Sullivan William Schenck Nadia Margolis Laine Doggett E Jane Burns Nancy FreemanRegalado Laurie Shephard Sarah White Song in the Novel Jennifer Rushworth,Hannah Scott,Barry Ife,2024-07-11 In Song in the Novel scholars of literature music and culture explore the presence of songs and singing in novels focusing on English French Italian Russian and Spanish examples from the seventeenth to the twenty first centuries Bestiaire D'amour. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
