The Solo Beatles Film & TV Chronicle 1971-1980 Jörg Pieper,2009-05-17 This book is meant as a companion volume to The Beatles Film TV Chronicle 1961 1970 and covers the first ten years of the solo careers of the individual Beatles from 1971 to 1980 It is the indispensable reference book for every serious Beatles video collector with several years worth of research and investigation into the massive amount of film material held in archives around the world The book includes details on over 100 hours worth of solo material with many items covered for the very first time and is fully illustrated with over one hundred and eighty thumbnail images b w taken from a variety of film sources As a bonus the book also includes a chapter of updates regarding recently discovered and new information about films of The Beatles as a group during the years from 1961 to 1970 Through the years the author has been consulted for several Beatles film and book projects including the 2011 Martin Scorsese documentary George Harrison Living in the Material World Anatole Litvak Michelangelo Capua, 2015-02-13 During his 40 year career director producer Anatole Litvak 1902 1974 made films of all genres in Russia Germany England France and the United States His rootless background was cited by critics lamenting his lack of consistent style but it also added to his mystique as a chameleon like realisateur Litvak directed Hollywood greats like Edward G Robinson John Garfield Kirk Douglas Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Sophia Loren Anthony Perkins Olivia de Havilland Yul Brynner Burt Lancaster Barbara Stanwick and many others He was twice nominated for Best Director by the Academy of Motion Picture Art and Sciences for The Snake Pit 1948 and for Decision Before Dawn 1951 These films along with Mayerling 1936 Sorry Wrong Number 1946 and Anastasia 1956 are considered classics but his pictures don t offer many clues about Litvak the man Apart from passing references to his wartime service as combat documentarian he never discussed his life in print allowing only brief interviews relating exclusively to his work This biography fills that void providing the first detailed portrait of an artist described by film historian Richard Schickel as an adept adaptable and prolific man the kind of director that Hollywood likes best

Hitchcock's America Jonathan Freedman, Richard Millington, 1999-02-25 Alfred Hitchcock s American films are not only among the most admired works in world cinema they also offer some of our most acute responses to the changing shape of American society in the 1940s 50s and 60s The authors of this anthology show how famous films such as Strangers on a Train Vertigo North by Northwest and Rear Window along with more obscure ones such as Rope The Wrong Man and Family Plot register the ideologies and insurgencies the normative assumptions and the cultural alternatives that shaped these tumultuous decades They argue that just as these films occupy a visual landscape defined by the grand monuments of American civic life Mt Rushmore the Statue of Liberty the United Nations they are also marked by their preoccupation with the social mores and private practices of mid century America Not only are big city and suburban life the explicit subjects of films like Rear Window and Shadow of a Doubt so are the forms of experience that emerge within these social spaces whether the urban voyeurism examined by the former or the intertwining of banality and violence depicted in the latter Indeed just about every form of American life that was achieving social power at this time the national security state the science and art of psychoanalysis the privileging of the free wheeling improvisatory self the postwar codification and fissuring of gender roles road culture and its ancillary creation the motel is given detailed critical and mordant examination in Hitchcock's films The Hitchcock who emerges is not merely the inspired technician and psychological excavator that critics of the past two generations have justly hailed he is also a cultural critic of remarkable insight and undeniable prescience

Celluloid Sisters Janet Thumim, 2016-07-27 Taking De Lauretis' proposition that popular cinema is a technology of gender the book explores the representation of women and the readerly activity of female audience members in respect of a group of eighteen films successful at the British box office between 1945 and 1965 A method for the analysis of fictional characters is presented and the discursive context within which contemporary meanings were formed is explored through reference to the press particularly that addressed to a female readership Theatre, Opera and Consciousness. Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2013 The study of consciousness has developed considerably over the past ten years with an emphasis on seeking to explain subjective experience Our understanding of key questions relating to the performing arts in theory and practice benefits from the insights of consciousness studies Theatre Opera and Consciousness discusses selected concerns of theatre history from a consciousness studies perspective develops a new perspective on ethical implications of theatre practice reassesses the concept of the guru and offers a new approach to the actor's cool down The book expands the framework from theatre to opera and presents a new consideration of the spiritual aspects of singing in opera conducting for opera and the opera experience for singers and spectators alike International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Films Nicholas Thomas, James Vinson, Samantha Cook, 1990 Greatly revises and expands the 1984 first edition of Volume one of the astute and elegant five volume reference to the world's most significant films and filmmakers One hundred new films have been added bringing the total to 650 arranged in crisp clean entries on large 8 1/2x11 pages and illustrated with luminous stills In addition to complete production credits cast lists and excellent select bibliographies each entry includes an expository essay by a significant critic the essays being models of thoughtful unpretentious scholarship and love of film Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Box Office, 1947 Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review, 1954 Motion Picture Herald, 1935
