Better Red:

Better Red Constance Coiner, 1995-03-30 Better Red is an interdisciplinary study addressing the complicated intersection of American feminism and the political left as refracted in Tillie Olsen's and Meridel Le Sueur's lives and literary texts. The first book-length study to explore these feminist writers' ties to the American Communist Party, it contributes to a reenvisioning of 1930s U.S. Communism as well as to efforts to promote working class writing as a legitimate category of literary analysis. At once loyal members of the male-dominated Communist Party and emerging feminists, Olsen and Le Sueur exhibit in their writing tendencies both toward and away from Party tenets and attitudes at points subverting formalist as well as orthodox Marxist literary categories. By producing working class discourse, Olsen and Le Sueur challenge the bourgeois assumptions often masked as classless and universal of much canonical literature and by creating working class women's writing, they problematize the patriarchal nature of the Left and the masculinist assumptions of much proletarian literature. Anticipating the concerns of second wave feminists a generation later.

Snow, 2015-08-27 Analyzes the history, evolution, and processes of national security policies. This text examines national security from two fundamental fault lines: the end of the Cold War and the 9/11 terrorist attacks, and considers how the resulting era of globalization and geopolitics guides policy. Placing this trend in conceptual and historical context and following it through military, semi-military, and non-military concerns, National Security for a New Era treats its subject as a nuanced and subtle phenomenon that encompasses everything from the nation to the individual.

Journal of the Optical Society of America, 1921 Thinking Without a Banister Hannah Arendt, 2018-03-06 Hannah Arendt was born in Germany in 1906 and lived in America from 1941 until her death in 1975. Thus, her life spanned the tumultuous years of the twentieth century as did her thought. She did not consider herself a philosopher, though she studied and maintained close relationships with two great philosophers, Karl Jaspers and Martin Heidegger, throughout their lives. She was a thinker in search not of metaphysical truth but of the meaning of appearances and events. She was a questioner rather than an answerer and she wrote what she thought principally to encourage others to think for themselves. Fearless of the consequences of thinking, Arendt found courage woven in each and every strand of human freedom. In 1951 she published The Origins of Totalitarianism, in 1958 The Human Condition, in 1961 Between Past and Future, in 1963 On Revolution, and in 1968 Men in Dark Times, in 1970 On Violence, in 1972 Crises of the Republic, and in 1978 posthumously The Life of the Mind. Starting at the turn of the twenty-first century, Schocken Books has published a series of collections of Arendt's unpublished and uncollected writings, of which Thinking Without a Banister is the fifth.

volume The title refers to Arendt s description of her experience of thinking an activity she indulged without any of the traditional religious moral political or philosophic pillars of support The book s contents are varied the essays lectures reviews interviews speeches and editorials taken together manifest the relentless activity of her mind as well as her character acquainting the reader with the person Arendt was and who has hardly yet been appreciated or understood Edited and with an introduction by Jerome Kohn Digitalis Assay William Harrison Martindale,1913 Better Crops ,1926 Adventure ,1918 Publications of ... Colorado Agricultural Experiment Station,1910 Judy, Or the London Serio-comic Journal ,1887 Lochs and Loch Fishing Hamish Stuart,1899 Works Thomas Carlyle,1885
