Betty Wales Decides Margaret Warde,1911 Betty Wales, Senior Edith K. Dunton,2017-06-12 CHAPTER I BACK TO THE COLLEGE AGAIN Oh Rachel Morrison am I too late for the four ten train Betty Wales pink cheeked and breathless her yellow curls flying under her dainty lingerie hat and her crisp white skirts held high to escape the dust of the station platform sank down beside Rachel on a steamer trunk that the Harding baggage men had been too busy or too accommodating to move away and began to fan herself vigorously with a very small and filmy handkerchief No you re not late dearie laughed Rachel pulling Betty s hat straight or rather the train is late too Where have you been Betty smiled reminiscently Everywhere

pretty nearly You know that cunning little freshman that had lost her trunks All those that I ve interviewed have lost their trunks interpolated Rachel Betty waved a deprecating hand toward the mountain of baggage that was piled up further down the platform Oh of course in that lovely mess Who wouldn t But this girl lost hers before she got here in Chicago or Albany or maybe it was Omaha She lives in Los Angeles so she might have lost them almost anywhere you see And of course she expected Prexy or the registrar to go back and look for them added Rachel Betty laughed Not she Besides she doesn t seem to care a bit She seems to think it s a splendid chance to go to New York next week and buy new clothes But what she wanted of me was to tell her where she could get some shirt waists just enough to last until she s perfectly sure that the trunks are gone for good I didn t want to stick around here from three to four so I said I d go and show her Evans s and that little new shirt waist place Of course I pointed out all the objects of interest along the way and when I mentioned Cuyler s she insisted upon going in to have ices And how many does that make for you to day demanded Rachel severely Well Betty defended herself I treated you once and you treated me once and then we met Christy Mason and as you couldn t go back with her I had to But I only had lemonade that time And this child was so comical and it was such a good idea What was such a good idea inquired Rachel Oh didn t I tell you Why after we d finished at Cuyler s she asked me if there weren t any other places something like it and she said she thought if we tried them all in a row we could tell which was best But we couldn t sighed Betty regretfully because of course things taste better when you re hungriest But anyhow she wanted to keep on because now she can give pointers to other freshmen and make them think she is a sophomore How about the shirt waists Oh she had just got to that when I had to leave her Betty rose sighing as a train whistled somewhere down the track Do you suppose Georgia Ames will be on this one Who can tell said Rachel There ll be somebody that we know anyway
