Between Rationality Irrationality The Jewish Psychotherapeutic System:

Between Rationality and Irrationality Mordechai Rotenberg, 2017-09-29 Jewish Scriptural interpretation entails a potential therapeutic bridge between the rational material and the irrational mystic in the world of psychotherapy PaRDeS as this system is known is derived from the following concepts P denotes peshat the plain interpretation of the text which translates into a rational interpretation of life R symbolizes remez hinting at a related religious concept which becomes a symbolic view of life D stands for derash the homiletic way of interpreting a text or a narrative reading of life And S represents sod or the mystery behind an idea which in psychological terms becomes a mystic understanding of life Mordechai Rotenberg believes that it is by engaging readings in a dialogue with each other as in the Jewish hermeneutic tradition the psychology underlying one's existence may be more readily understood While Rotenberg acknowledges that it is legitimate to focus on one cognitive rational or one narrative storytelling therapeutic method in the course of therapy he argues that a comprehensive theory of psychotherapy should include treatment possibilities for both rational and irrational manifestations of behavior thereby engulfing all aspects of human behavior For Rotenberg a person's life becomes the text subject to being read and interpreted If that person wishes to change his or her behavior via psychotherapy then a hermeneutic system must be employed to understand that person's life However many systems interpret a person's life according to the particular theory espoused by the therapist Rotenberg in contrast introduces a balanced theory bridging the rational and the irrational Between Rationality and Irrationality emphasizes that it is more important for a therapist to learn his client's own language than to impose his own doctrinaire interpretation This edition includes a new introduction by the author as well as an appendix explicating an original psychological interpretation of PaRDeS Between Rationality and Irrationality Gunther S. Stent, 2000-12-01 For Rotenberg a person's life becomes the text a subject to being read and interpreted If that person wishes to change his or her behavior through psychotherapy then a hermeneutic system must be employed to understand that person's life However many systems interpret a person's life according to the particular theory espoused by the therapist Rotenberg in contrast introduces a balanced theory bridging the rational and the irrational Between Rationality and Irrationality emphasizes that it is more important for a therapist to learn his client's own language than to impose his own doctrinaire interpretation Biblical Psychotherapy Kalman J. Kaplan, Paul Cantz, 2017-11-29 In Biblical Psychotherapy Kalman J. Kaplan and Paul Cantz offer a new approach to suicide prevention based on biblical narratives that is designed to overcome the suicidogenic patterns in Greek and Roman stories implicit in modern mental health More than sixteen suicides and self mutilations emerge in the twenty six surviving tragedies of Sophocles and Euripides and countless others occurred in Greek and Roman lives In contrast only six suicides are found in the Hebrew Scriptures in addition to a number of suicide prevention narratives Kaplan and Cantz reclaim life enhancing biblical narratives as alternatives to matched suicidal stories in Greek and Roman society with regard to seven evidence based risk factors These biblical narratives are employed to treat fourteen patients fitting into the outlined Graeco Roman suicidal syndromes and to provide an in depth positive psychology aimed at promoting life rather than simply preventing suicide
