What The Dark Made of Me Chisom Promise Onyekaba,2026-01-06 There are wounds the light will never understand So she learned to live in the dark to embrace her shadows and call them by name to cradle her grief until it began to sing What the Dark Made of Me is not just poetry It is resurrection in verses the sound of a woman remembering herself after the silence These poems bleed loss and tenderness fire and faith grief and the strange holy beauty of surviving Every line is a scar that learned how to speak every stanza a fragment of a life rebuilt from ruin This is not about escape It is about what happens when the darkness does not end and you learn to call it home Buds, Briars and Berries Sextus P.
