Extraordinary Partnerships Christine Henseler, 2020-05-01 This inspirational and hopeful collection demonstrates that the arts and humanities are entering a renaissance that stands to change the direction of our communities. Community leaders, artists, educators, scholars, and professionals from many fields show how they are creating responsible transformations through partnership in the arts and humanities. The diverse perspectives that come together in this book teach us how to perceive our lives and our disciplines through a broader context. The contributions exemplify how individuals, groups, and organizations use artistic and humanistic principles to explore new structures and novel ways of interacting to reimagine society. They refresh and reinterpret the ways in which we have traditionally assigned space and value to the arts and humanities. Communicating Space Exploration Fulvio Drigani, 2020-02-22 This book offers an enlightening analysis of the ways in which the communication of space explorations has evolved in response to political and social developments and the availability of new media and communication tools Important challenges to effective communication are discussed including the diversity of audiences the risks associated with space missions and continuing skepticism about the benefits of space research despite the many associated day to day applications In addition future trends in communication are examined with reference to likely trends in space exploration over the coming century Besides space communication for the public the need for targeted messaging to each group of stakeholders decision makers media opinion leaders the scientific community and industry is analyzed in detail A series of case studies of particular space missions both successful and unsuccessful is presented to illustrate key issues The book has significant implications for the communication of science in general and will be of interest to a wide audience including space scientists science communication professionals people fascinated by exploration and discovery stakeholders and educators Handbook on Democracy and Security Nicholas A. Seltzer, Steven L.
