Deadly Appearances:

The Joanne Kilbourn Mysteries 3-Book Bundle Volume 1 Gail Bowen,2010-12-17 Award winning mystery writer Gail Bowen s first three masterful mysteries featuring amateur sleuth Joanne Kilbourn are now collected in a single volume In Deadly Appearances a successful politician sips his water before a speech at a picnic on a sweltering August afternoon and within seconds he is dead in Murder at the Mendel Joanne s childhood friend may have a far more complicated far more sordid and far more deadly past than Joanne knows about and in The Wandering Soul Murders a centre for street kids holds a dark and disturbing secret forcing Joanne to act when her own children are drawn into a web of intrigue that will leave you breathless

Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors Jerry Roberts,2009-06-05 From live productions of the 1950s like Requiem for a Heavyweight to big budget mini series like Band of Brothers long form television programs have been helmed by some of the most creative and accomplished names in directing Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors brings attention to the directors of these productions citing every director of stand alone long form television programs made for TV movies movie length pilots mini series and feature length anthology programs as well as drama comedy and musical specials of more than 60 minutes Each of the nearly 2 000 entries provides a brief career sketch of the director his or her notable works awards and a filmography Many entries also provide brief discussions of key shows movies and other productions Appendixes include Emmy Awards DGA Awards and other accolades as well as a list of anthology programs A much needed reference that celebrates these often neglected artists Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the history of the medium

Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett,2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 A Killing Spring Gail Bowen,2011-06-21 Gail Bowen winner of the 1995 Arthur Ellis Award for best crime novel for her last Joanne Kilbourn mystery A Colder Kind of Death is back with her most daring mystery to date In the horrifying opening paragraph of A Killing Spring Reed Gallagher the head of the School of Journalism at the university where Joanne Kilbourn teaches is found dead in a seedy rooming house He is dressed in women s lingerie with an electric cord around his neck Suicide the police say A clear case of accidental suicide But for Joanne who takes on the thankless task of breaking the news to Gallagher s wife this death is just the first in a series of misfortunes that rock her life both professional and personal A few days after Gallagher s death the School of Journalism is vandalized its offices and computers are trashed and homophobic graffiti are sprayed everywhere Then an unattractive and unpopular journalism student in Joanne s politics class stops coming to school after complaining to an unbelieving Joanne that she s being sexually harassed Clearly all is not as well at the university as Joanne had thought Nor is all well in her love life after the casual racism of a stranger drives a wedge between Joanne and her lover Inspector Alex Kequahtoway To make matters worse Joanne is unceremoniously fired by her best friend from the weekly political panel on Nationtv which she s being doing for years Badly shaken by these calamities Joanne struggles to carry cheerfully on Action she knows is better for her than moping She decides to find out why her student has stopped coming to class and in doing so Joanne steps unknowingly into an on campus world of fear and deceit and murder Murder at the Mendel Gail Bowen,2011-05-17 As a child Joanne was friends with Sally Love and her parents but the friendship languished after Sally s father died and she moved away eventually becoming a very controversial artist When the Mendel Gallery opens an exhibition of Sally s work Joanne is eager to attend and to renew their friendship But it s not so easy being Sally s friend anymore and soon Joanne finds herself ensnared in a web of intrigue and violence When the director of a local private gallery is brutally murdered Joanne finds that the past she and Sally share was far more complicated and far more sordid than she had realized The Glass Coffin Gail Bowen,2011-07-12 In this chilling tale of the terrible power of the ties that both bind us and blind us Gail Bowen has given us her best novel yet Brimming with the author s characteristic empathy for the troubled The Glass Coffin explores the depth of tragedy that a camera s neutral eye can capture and cause Canada s favourite sleuth Joanne Kilbourn is dismayed to learn who it is that her best friend Jill Osiowy is about to marry Evan MacLeish may be a celebrated documentary filmmaker but he s a cold fish who not only has already lost two wives to suicide but has exploited their lives and deaths by making acclaimed films about them Not even Jill appears to be particularly fond of him and Jo is appalled to learn that her friend is marrying Evan primarily to become stepmother to his teenaged daughter Bryn Even Bryn hates her father for having filmed her all of her short life It s obvious to Joanne that this is stony ground on which to found a marriage What is not obvious is that it is about to get bloodsoaked Intelligent sympathetic and harder edged than earlier novels in the Joanne Kilbourn series The Glass Coffin is the work of a writer at the top of her form Detecting Canada Jeannette Sloniowski,Marilyn

Rose,2014-03-25 The first serious book length study of crime writing in Canada Detecting Canada contains thirteen essays on many of Canada s most popular crime writers including Peter Robinson Giles Blunt Gail Bowen Thomas King Michael Slade Margaret Atwood and Anthony Bidulka Genres examined range from the well loved police procedural and the amateur sleuth to those less well known such as anti detection and contemporary noir novels The book looks critically at the esteemed sixties television show Wojeck as well as the more recent series Da Vinci s Inquest Da Vinci s City Hall and Intelligence and the controversial Durham County a critically acclaimed but violent television series that ran successfully in both Canada and the United States The essays in Detecting Canada look at texts from a variety of perspectives including postcolonial studies gender and queer studies feminist studies Indigenous studies and critical race and class studies Crime fiction enjoyed by so many around the world speaks to all of us about justice citizenship and important social issues in an uncertain world
