The Most Important Clock in America Ronald R. Hoppes, 2009-01-01 During the years of 1767-1770 David Rittenhouse designed and produced two orreries one for Princeton Univ and one for the Univ of PA During the last two years of this interval he also produced two 30 day musical tall cased clocks The first clock built in 1769 is currently owned by the PA Hospital The following year 1770 Rittenhouse made a second tall case musical clock which was more elaborate than the first This clock currently owned by Drexel Univ is a very good example of Rittenhouse's work as it has experienced only minor changes over the years This was the masterpiece of his clock making career and is a national historical treasure Here is a detailed analysis of the various gears in the clock 100 drawings and full color photos

Samuel Beckett and the Theatre of the Witness Hannah Simpson, 2022 Samuel Beckett and the Theatre of the Witness explores Beckett's representation of physical pain in his theatre plays in the long aftermath of World War II emphasising how the issues raised by this staging of pain speak directly to matters lying at the heart of his work the affective power of the human body the doubtful capacity of language as a means of communication the aesthetic and ethical functioning of the theatre medium and the vexed question of intersubjective empathy Alongside the wartime and post war plays of fellow Francophone writers Albert Camus Eugène Ionesco Pablo Picasso and Marguerite Duras this study resituates Beckett's early plays in a new conceptualising of le théâtre du témoin or a theatre of the witness These are plays concerned with the epistemological and ethical uncertainties of witnessing another's pain rather than with the sufferer's own direct experience They raise troubling questions about our capacity to comprehend and respond to another being's pain Drawing on an interdisciplinary framework of extant criticism recorded historical audience response theatre and affect theory and medical understandings of bodily pain Hannah Simpson argues that these plays do not offer any easily negotiable encounter with physical suffering pushing us to recognise the very otherness of another being's pain even as it invades our own affective sphere In place of any comforting transcendence or redemption of endured pain they offer a starkly sceptical even pessimistic probing of what it is to witness another's suffering
