Drawing France Joel E. Vessels, 2010-09-03 In France Belgium and other Francophone countries comic strips called bande dessinée or BD in French have long been considered a major art form capable of addressing a host of contemporary issues Among French speaking intelligentsia graphic narratives were deemed worthy of canonization and critical study decades before the academy and the press in the United States embraced comics The place that BD holds today however belies the contentious political route the art form has traveled In Drawing France French Comics and the Republic author Joel E Vessels examines the trek of BD from it being considered a fomenter of rebellion to a medium suitable only for semi literates to an impediment to education and most recently to an art capable of addressing social concerns in mainstream culture In the mid 1800s alarmists feared political caricatures might incite the ire of an illiterate working class To counter this notion proponents yoked the art to a particular articulation of Frenchness based on literacy and reason With the post World War II economic upswing French consumers saw BD as a way to navigate the changes brought by modernization After bande dessinée came to be understood as a compass for the masses the government especially Francois Mitterand s administration brought comics increasingly into official culture Vessels argues that BD are central to the formation of France s self image and a self awareness of what it means to be French

The Politics of Persuasion Desmond Dinan, 1988-06-14 As a case study of foreign policy formation and implementation this text is intended to add to our understanding of the course and conduct of the Second World War and the dynamics of contemporary international relations Most important this book shows wartime Anglo French relations in a new light by analyzing primarily British policy towards the French African Empire between the defeat of France in June 1940 and the Allied invasion of Morocco and Algeria in November 1942 Contents include La Guerre A Outrance Free French Africa Full Circle French North Africa October 1940 March 1941 The Moroccan Question Stemming the Tide The Madagascar Compromise Prelude to Torch
