Babylonian Gilgamesh Epic Introduction Critical Edition And Cuneiform Texts:

The Babylonian Gilgamesh Epic A. R. George, 2003 The Babylonian Gilgamesh epic is the oldest long poem in the world with a history going back four thousand years It tells the fascinating and moving story of Gilgamesh's heroic deeds and lonely quest for immortality This book collects for the first time all the known sources in the original cuneiform including many fragments never published before The author's personal study of every available fragment has produced a definitive edition and translation complete with comprehensive introductory chapters that place the poem and its hero in context

Problems of Canonicity and Identity Formation in Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia Gojko Barjamovic, Kim Ryholt, 2016-04-24 The term canonicity implies the recognition that the domain of literature and of the library is also a cultural and political one related to various forms of identity formation maintenance and change Scribes and benefactors create canon in as much as they teach analyze preserve promulgate and change canonical texts according to prevailing norms From early on texts from the written traditions of ancient Mesopotamia and Egypt were accumulated codified and to some extent canonized as various collections developed mainly in the environment of the temple and the palace These written traditions represent sets of formal and informal cultures that all speak in their own ways of canonicity normativity and other forms of cultural expertise Some forms of literature were used not only in scholarly contexts but also in political ones and they served purposes of identity formation This volume addresses the interrelations between various forms of canon and identity formation in different time periods genres regions and contexts as well as the application of contemporary conceptions of canon to ancient texts

Personified Mountains in Ancient Canonical Narratives Eric J. P. Wagner, 2025-11-17 Text and History Jens Bruun Kofoed, 2005 Jens Bruun Kofoed addresses the methodological issues that must lie behind the use of the biblical text and its validation as a source for historical information from publisher's description

Literary Translation and the Making of Originals Karen Emmerich, 2017-09-21 Literary Translation and the Making of Originals engages such issues as the politics and ethics of translation how aesthetic categories and market forces contribute to the establishment and promotion of particular originals and the role translation plays in the formation reformation and deformation of national and international literary canons By challenging the assumption that stable originals

even exist Karen Emmerich also calls into question the tropes of ideal equivalence and unavoidable loss that contribute to the low status of translation translations and translators in the current literary and academic marketplaces

Leadership at the Crossroads Joanne B. Ciulla, Donelson R. Forsyth, Michael A. Genovese, George R. Goethals, Lori Cox Han, Crystal L. Hoyt, 2008-10-30 What is leadership Not only has that question been debated since the beginning of human culture and society but it is a moving target based on the definer and the epoch The definition can be thought provoking and profound A leader is best when people barely know he exists not so good when people obey and acclaim him worse when they despise him Lao Tzu 6th century BC Or the profundity may lie shrouded in the prosaic A leader is one who has followers Peter Drucker 20th century However you define the concept today's challenges for leaders of all stripes are monumental and the need for effective leadership is huge More than anything this set travels farther and digs deeper than most leadership books It takes us from mere explanations of leadership to an understanding of it as part of the human condition Reading it should be at the top of the to do list for any leader in any era In Leadership at the Crossroads contributors from a wide variety of fields including management economics political science philosophy sociology history literature and psychology explore the many facets of leadership The set comprises Volume 1 Leadership and Psychology Volume 2 Leadership and Politics Volume 3 Leadership and the Humanities Collectively this set showcases traditional and emerging approaches to leadership in both theory and practice and raises new questions brought on by society's new challenges It also suggests solutions for developing and promoting leadership in the corporate world politics and diplomacy religion education non profits and the arts Whether identifying qualities that will serve a U S president well or the characteristics of the essential can do supervisor in today's corporation Leadership at the Crossroads supplies insights and intelligence that will help leaders make the most of the challenges and opportunities lying before them

Challenging the Beast, Challenging Empire Tamás

Czövek, 2026-02-03 The relationship of Primeval History to the ancient Near Eastern world has long been the subject of academic interest In this unique study Dr Tamás Czövek offers a new perspective on Genesis 1-11 through the previously unexamined lens of kingship city and cult Utilizing a comprehensive comparative exegesis of the Primeval History with Mesopotamian literature Dr Czövek compellingly argues for a reading of Primeval History as a counter narrative to that of Babylon one that criticizes Babylon's hierarchical society imperial politics and culture and illuminates the way Primeval History subverts shared themes to tell a new story of the image of God in humanity Biblical scholars will be enriched and challenged in this timely work bringing deep rooted insights from these ancient communities into relevance for today

Death Imagined Karolina Sekita, Katherine Southwood, 2025-05-06 A book about perception and imagination of death dying and the beyond in ancient cultures from Mesopotamia and Egypt to Rome and even the Incas The collected studies explore apotropaic or celebratory rituals of death the imagined processes of dying and the imagination of the dead in the minds of the living and mourning relatives
