

The 'best short story writer in English' (Time) is back with a masterful collection that explores power, ethics, and justice – and cuts to the very heart of what it means to live in community with our fellow humans.

In a Hell-themed section of an underground amusement park, a lonely man is confronted with everything he has taken for granted about his reality. On Mother's Day, two women who loved the same man come to an existential reckoning in the middle of a hailstorm. An old man, brainwashed and deployed as a political protestor for hire, struggles to remember who he used to be.

In this collection of prismatic, deeply resonant stories that encompass joy and despair, oppression and revolution, bizarre fantasy and brutal reality, Saunders' wickedly funny and clear-eyed prose reaffirms him as one of the greatest living storytellers.
