Begum Barve Satīśa Āḷekara,1994 Women in Asian Performance Arya Madhavan,2017-02-10 Women in Asian Performance offers a vital re assessment of women s contributions to Asian performance traditions focusing for the first time on their specific historical cultural and performative contexts Arya Madhavan brings together leading scholars from across the globe to make an exciting intervention into current debates around femininity and female representation on stage This collection looks afresh at the often centuries old aesthetic theories and acting conventions that have informed ideas of gender in Asian performance It is divided into three parts erasure the history of the presence and absence of female bodies on Asian stages intervention the politics of female intervention into patriarchal performance genres reconstruction the strategies and methods adopted by women in redefining their performance practice Establishing a radical culturally specific approach to addressing female performance making Women in Asian Performance is a must read for scholars and students across Asian Studies and Performance Studies Forbidden Sex, Forbidden Texts Hoshang Merchant,2020-11-29 The book argues that there is no monolithic homosexuality there are only homosexualities that is there are as many reasons for being gay as there are gays Some people are born gay some have gayness thrust upon them and some do indeed achieve to great gayness Representation of homosexuality homoeroticism as it is understood today is thus a western import The act and public social discourses on same sex love are still illegal it is according to many against the Indian tradition and a sense of history is seriously problematic when we dig out for a past tradition of homoerotic love and desire Hoshang Merchant through an examination of texts films poetry attempts to analyse and crack the codes of sexual mis conduct in contemporary India giving short histories of the fate of several gay writers and explaining the difficulties of coming out Contemporary Marathi Cinema Hrishikesh Sudhakar Ingle,2024-12-10 Post millennial Marathi cinema is a dynamic and expanding practice that is celebrated as a new wave but has not received much critical engagement This book presents the first comprehensive inquiry of contemporary films and examines their textual industrial and cultural intersections to understand what constitutes the new ness of Marathi cinema Establishing the vernacular particularity of Marathi cinema the book argues that newage films are actively engaged in a reflexive intellectual and social critique as a mark of new filmmaking in India In the diversity of genres and topics handled by Marathi filmmakers since 2004 this study identifies four broad affective topographies for analysis an imagery of nostalgia underpinning the narrative strategies of Marathi films the articulation of social aspiration as a theme as well as a societal dialectic an experiential reflexivity in the representation of Dalit and marginal narratives and a mediatic network of border crossings through transnational influences on films Contemporary Marathi Cinema Space Marginality and Aspiration offers a critical dialogue on broad issues of film policy multiplex economics genre forms queer politics and neoliberal contexts It will be indispensable to students and researchers of Indian cinemas regional filmmaking media cultural studies popular culture and performance literature and South Asian studies and will also be of interest to filmmakers and cinephiles Playwright at the Centre Shanta Gokhale, 2000 History of Indian Marathi drama theatre details a 150 year period Biblio, 1997-03 Chanakya Vishnugupta Govind P. Deshpande, 1996 Veteran Marathi playwright and Marxist intellectual G P Deshpande turns to India's ancient past to pinpoint the historical moment of empire in the context of the history of the subcontinent The central character of the play Acharya Chanakya Vishnugupta theoretician and strategist of state is perceived to be the force behind the rise of young Chandragupta Maurya from a mere rebel to the status of Emperor of Magadha What drives Chanakya is a historical vision He sees in Chandragupta the ideal vessel to carry out his theories of state and ruthlessly manipulates his young disciple to fulfil his grand vision of an all powerful empire the first centralized state As with all Deshpande's plays this is a fierce theatre of ideas in which the debate over concepts of state rages back and forth between the characters The questions raised in the process result in an investigation of history rarely undertaken in dramatic form This is political theatre in the true sense of the term The playwright's detailed introduction explores the ideas that went into the play his approach to the main characters and what they mean to him Twist in the Folktale Chandrasekhar Kambar, 2004 Each of the playwrights in this collection takes a folktale and turns it into a contemporary experimental play intervening in the traditional material and reshaping conventions from an urban perspective Although the folk and rural element remain embedded in the body of the narratives it is interesting to note the shifts and intersections which occur in the process of rendering folklore as a present day performative text Jokumaraswami by leading Kannada playwright and poet Chandrasekhar Kambar is a vibrant earthy play which creatively reworks the folk myth of a phallic god of fertility into a powerfully contemporary anti feudal message Pebet is a folktale about a mother bird fighting to protect her children from a predatory cat politicized by H Kanhailal who transforms this familiar story into a struggle against the political and cultural colonization of Manipur Charandas Chor by veteran playwright director Habib Tanvir performed by Naya Theatre's Chattisgarhi folk artists is a contemporary Indian classic depicting the irrepressible folk hero and honest thief Charandas a Robin Hood figure who charms his way into everyone's heart The India Magazine of Her People and Culture, 1995 Ford Foundation Annual Report Ford Foundation, 1992 The president's report to the trustees and statement of grants Kirwant Premānanda Gajvi, 2005 Premanand Gajvee tells the story of a little known sect of brahmins known as kirwants whose religious duty is to perform the last rites at cremations Marginalized by the entire community in general and the brahmins in particular kirwants are treated like polluting outcastes Based on personal experience that occurred as recently as the 1980s this play which deals savagely with a subject carefully kept under wraps is a severe indictment of an inhuman social system Kirwant created a sensation in Marathi theatre scene when it was first produced One of the greatest actors of our theatre Sreeram Lagoo taking up the cudgels for a relatively unknown playwright offered to perform the lead role of the kirwant Siddheshwarshastri The text is supplemented with a preface by the playwright and a director's note by Shreeram Lagoo Award winning playwright Premanand Gajvee is one of the younger playwrights writing in Marathi today

Several of his plays have been included as texts in undergraduate and postgraduate literature courses in various universities of Maharashtra M D Hatkanangalekar who has translated and introduced this play is a leading literary critic and translator who has taught English at Willingdon College Sangli Indian Horizons ,1999 Link ,1979 Trikone ,1997
