The Crisis of Journalism Reconsidered Jeffrey C. Alexander, Elizabeth Butler Breese, María Luengo, 2016-06-13 This collection of original essays brings a dramatically different perspective to bear on the contemporary crisis of journalism Rather than seeing technological and economic change as the primary causes of current anxieties The Crisis of Journalism Reconsidered draws attention to the role played by the cultural commitments of journalism itself Linking these professional ethics to the democratic aspirations of the broader societies in which journalists ply their craft it examines how the new technologies are being shaped to sustain value commitments rather than undermining them Recent technological change and the economic upheaval it has produced are coded by social meanings It is this cultural framework that actually transforms these objective changes into a crisis The book argues that cultural codes not only trigger sharp anxiety about technological and economic changes but provide pathways to control them so that the democratic practices of independent journalism can be sustained in new forms

Making a Scene in Documentary Film Maxine Trump, 2023-04-10 This collection of iconic interviews helps demystify the documentary filmmaking process by deconstructing the most relevant and important scenes in some of today s most well known documentary films It offers concrete real world examples of the situations and decisions that filmmakers navigate We go behind the scenes with the creators to learn the methodologies and approaches these directors cinematographers editors and sound recordists have taken to bring these amazing documentaries to life What makes a great scene Why are they so important in the construction of a great film The interviews included offer excellent insights from the directors of the award winning The Truffle Hunters My Octopus Teacher Collective Knock Down the House

Dick Johnson Is Dead and Trapped the cinematographer of RBG Julia and Fauci the editor of Time and sound recordist of Tiger King Award winning documentary filmmaker and esteemed Sundance advisor Maxine Trump goes in depth with each filmmaker asking about their creative process Why did these scenes make such a deep impression on both the filmmakers and their audience Was it the cinematic style the dynamic dialogue the magic of observational filmmaking or a surprising turning point This technical but creative and accessible resource is suitable for documentary filmmakers aspiring directors producers editors and cinematographers of non fiction film Each interview offers a fresh perspective to the emerging or professional filmmaker and audience alike Book Review Index ,1985 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
