Page,1906 A history of our time

The World of Beer and Beers of the World Tomáš Hasík,2015-02-05 The book about craft breweries and craft beers Basic information about beer raw materials types of beer homebrewing cooking with beer etc The book contains a lot of pictures of craft breweries and craft beers from around the world Have a Nice Beer This book if the first from a planned series focusing on craft beer and cooking recipes using beer accompanied by many photos movies and other interactive elements We re incredibly lucky to be living during a period of Renaissance of beer There is an unbelievable amount of great beers waiting for us Some have been forgotten and many more have yet to be discovered There s a hitherto undiscovered world of mysterious tastes aromas and colors With some honorable exceptions these are not just the products of large multinational brewing conglomerations but rather beer brewed at small and independent breweries crafted with the love and knowhow of their makers Despite many obstacles these independent brewers craft brewers from all over the world have restored the traditional production of beer along with long forgotten beer types They don t use food additives named after letters of the alphabet nor other gimmicks to increase profits at the expense of quality Thus we can pleasure our senses with the authentic gastronomical experiences enjoyed by earlier peoples that are hard to find in this over technologized and globalized period All of the beers detailed in this book can be purchased Though not completely accessible at regular shops some supermarkets and a number of specialized shops offer sufficiently large selections You can also find plenty of restaurants which pour daft beers from craft breweries both domestic and foreign Many books have already been written about beer and each year more are published There are comprehensive publications and encyclopedias as well as various annual magazines and regional guidebooks So how is my book different and how might you find it useful First and foremost I have conceived it to be brief I don t want to burden you with excessive details But also contains the latest information Through word and image I ll introduce you to beer styles and specific brands of beers which are definitely worth tasting I ll try to provide you with basic information from the world of beers and together we ll uncover the secret tastes and aromas hiding within them We ll also take a look at the origin of beer and the emergence of beer styles We ll say something about the production of beer at both an industrial scale and at microbreweries and home brewing You will also learn how to use beer in the kitchen and not just as a beverage while cooking I ll respond to any questions and comments at Facebook May this book lead you to new experiences that will not only enrich you and your loved ones but also allow you to make master brewers happy and aid them in their work in showing us what real beer should be like Cheers Tom Has k Holstein-Friesian World ,1914 Craft Beer Matthew Curtis,2017 The World's Best Music ,1904
