Patterns of Violence Behind the Lines in Europe's Civil Wars Francisco J. Leira-Castiñeira, John Sakkas, 2025-09-30

This edited collection examines the violence experienced by non combatants during the civil wars which took place in Europe in the first half of the twentieth century. The determinants of violence in civil wars are highly complex and variable. By focusing on both the victims and perpetrators of violence in eight European countries including Russia, Ireland, France and Spain, the book explores what happened when differing groups within a polity clashed and in which ways internal conflicts manifested themselves and permeated societies. Divided into two parts, the chapters firstly identify and analyse how rear-guard violence was produced and exercised during the European civil wars and secondly they examine the violence perpetrated by and against women. Shedding light on the violence that was inflicted upon European civilians in the early to mid twentieth century, this book presents insights for historians of Europe, political scientists and international relations scholars alike.

Behind the Bar Alia Akkam, 2020-10-15 Behind the Bar shines a light on 50 signature cocktails from the most iconic hotel bars across the world, appealing to tried and true cocktail lovers and design aficionados alike. Recipes from some of these storied properties will inspire enthusiasts to re-create timeless cocktails at home. Plus anecdotes supplied by barkeepers and hotel and design personalities will enliven the recipes and reveal why so many hotel bars have endured through the years or have made an impact on the modern world. The clandestine speakeasy has been glorified countless times for its mix of sex appeal and transporting decor, but the hotel bar should also be recognised for its sophistication, grandeur or showmanship. Behind the Bar does exactly that but also transcends the cocktail crowd niche. It is just as much a book for the traveller with a strong appreciation for design as well as the fantasy-filled armchair traveller charmed by illustrations and nuggets of history.
