Reparenting the Inner Child Dr. Nicole LePera,2026-03-24 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of How to Do the Work and How to Be the Love You Seek comes a groundbreaking guide to healing our childhood wounds and rediscovering our full potential As adults we often fall into patterns that feel irrational or out of character shutting down lashing out people pleasing or self sabotaging Beneath those reactions lies our inner child a younger part of us still trying to get its needs met the only way it knows how We all carry the imprint of our earliest years Childhood is brief yet its impact is lifelong Some parts of us were met with love while other parts were met with silence criticism or disapproval To survive we learned to adapt learning to over perform to hide or stay small Most of us made it through with a mix of love and lack And many of us still protect the parts of ourselves that once felt unsafe While we can t change what happened we can change how it lives within us and impacts our lives today Reparenting the Inner Child offers a clear compassionate path to self integration combining practical exercises somatic tools and guided reflections to help us create the safety love and boundaries we ve always needed Through her holistic framework that models individual development Dr LePera explains how we can cultivate the emotional maturity and regulation to respond calmly instead of reacting to embrace desire instead of shame and to question the stories we ve long believed about who we have to be Enlightening empowering and clarifying Reparenting the Inner Child is a book that will stand the test of time as a comprehensive guide for personal development and healing and a resource that will forever change the way we understand ourselves Linux Journal ,2003 Outlook ,1921 Designing and Implementing Multimodal Curricula and Programs J. C. Lee,Santosh Khadka,2018-01-19 This volume presents a comprehensive overview of multimodal approaches to curriculum and programmatic implementation across a diverse range of teaching environments and across geographic and cultural boundaries Featuring contributions from scholars within and across both disciplines the book examines the ways in which new technologies link to expanding definitions of literacy and building on this how multimodal approaches might most effectively address the unique opportunities and challenges instructors face in contemporary classrooms and professional development programs Chapters draw on case studies from both existing scholarship and findings from the authors own experiences in practice including examples from writing rhetoric and composition courses open online learning courses and interdisciplinary faculty training programs The final section of the book showcases how the conversation might be further extended to address increasingly multilingual classrooms by exploring how multimodality has been implemented in transnational settings Engaging with key questions at the intersection of programmatic and curricular development and multimodal studies this book is a fundamental resource for graduate students and scholars in multimodality rhetoric studies language education applied linguistics and communication studies
