Wilt, 1991 Covers the film careers of five screenwriters who were crime and mystery writers for the famous Black mask pulp magazine Also shows how these five writers applied their pulp writing expertise to the movies The Mystery Fancier William F. Deeck, 2008-08-01 A bibliography of various mystery novels published between November 1976 and Fall 1992 The Mystery Fancier (Vol. 7 No. 3) May-June 1983 Guy M. Townsend, 2010-09-01 The Mystery Fancier Volume 7 Number 3 May June 1983 contains Closing the Gap A Critique by John Nieminski The Fattest Man in the Medical Profession by Bob Sampson and Deadly Edges of the Gay Blade by Martha Alderson The Damned Don't Cry - They Just Disappear Harlan Greene, 2017-12-29 A biography of an unconventional Southern writer who illuminated gay life in the South In The Damned Don't Cry They Just Disappear literary historian and Lambda Award winning novelist Harlan Greene has created a portrait of a nearly forgotten southern writer unearthing information from archives rare books film libraries and small town newspapers Greene brings Harry Hervey 1900 1951 to life and explicates his works to reveal him as a hardworking writer and master of many genres bravely unwilling to conform to conventional values As Greene illustrates Hervey's novels short stories nonfiction books and film scripts contain complex mixtures of history and thinly disguised homoerotic situations and themes They blend local color naturalism melodrama and psychological and sexual truths that provide a view to the circles in which he moved Living openly with his male lover in Savannah Georgia and Charleston South Carolina Hervey set novels in these cities that scandalized the locals and critics as well He challenged the sexual mores of his day sometimes subtly and at other times brazenly presenting texts that told one story to gay male readers while still courting a mainstream audience His novels and nonfiction may have been coded and thus escaped detection in their day but twenty first century readers can decipher them easily Greene also discusses Hervey s travel books and successful Hollywood scriptwriting as well as his use of exotic elements from Asian cultures The iconic film Shanghai Express starring Marlene Dietrich was based on one of his original stories He also wrote some of the first travel books on Indochina with descriptions of male and female prostitution and allusions to his own sexual adventures which still make for sensational reading today Despite Hervey s output and his perseverance in presenting gay characters and themes as openly as he could he has not been included in any survey of twentieth century gay writers Greene now rectifies this omission providing the first book length study of Hervey s life and work and the first scholarly attention to him in more than fifty years It furthers our understanding of gay life in the South as well as the impact of gay artists on popular culture in the first half of the twentieth century Yesterday's Faces Robert Sampson,1983 For the fourth volume of this series Robert Sampson has selected more than fifty magazine series characters to illustrate the development of the character of the detective Included here are both the amateur and professional detective female investigators deducting doctors brilliant amateurs and equally brilliant professional police There are private detectives reflecting Holmes and hard boiled cops from the parallel traditions of realism and melodramatic fantasy Characters include Brady and Riordan Terry Trimble Glamorous Nan Russell J G Reeder plus many others
