A Critique Of Film Theory:

A Critique of Film Theory Brian Henderson (professeur), 1980      □□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ A. M. Said Salama, 1973 Film Theory and Criticism Gerald Mast, Marshall Cohen, 1974      Critique of film theory (a). B. Henderson, 1980      Film Theory and Criticism Leo Braudy, Marshall Cohen, 2009 Building upon the wide range of selections and the extensive historical coverage that marked previous editions this new compilation stretches from the earliest attempts to define the cinema to the most recent efforts to place film in the contexts of psychology sociology and philosophy and to explore issues of gender and race Reorganized into eight sections each comprising the major fields of critical controversy and analysis this new edition features reformulated introductions and biographical headnotes that contextualize the readings making the text more accessible than ever to students film enthusiasts and general readers alike The seventh edition also integrates exciting new material on feminist theory queer cinema and global cinema as well as a new section Digitization and Globalization which engages important recent developments in technology and world cinema      A Viewer's Guide to Film Theory and Criticism Robert T. Eberwein, 1979      Bion in Film Theory and Analysis Carla Ambrósio Garcia, 2016-12-01 In Bion in Film Theory and Analysis The Retreat in Film Carla Ambrósio Garcia introduces the rich potential of the thinking of British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion for film theory By so doing she rethinks the space of the cinema as a space of retreat and brings new insights into the representation of retreat in film Presented in two parts the book seeks to deepen our understanding of the film experience and psychical growth Part I places Bion's view on the importance of the epistemophilic instinct at the heart of a critique of the pleasure centred theories of the cinematic apparatus of Jean Louis Baudry Christian Metz and Gaylyn Studlar proposing an idea of cinema as thoughts in search of a thinker Garcia then moves from Bion's epistemological period to his later work which draws on mysticism in order to posit an emotional experience in the cinema through which the subject can be or become real or at one with O Part II examines representations of retreat in four European films directed by Ingmar Bergman Pier Paolo Pasolini Georges Perec and Bernard Queysanne and Manoel de Oliveira showing them to articulate a gesture of retreat as an emotionally turbulent transitional stage in the development of the psyche what Bion conceptualizes as caesura Through its investigation of the retreat in cinema the book challenges common understandings of retreat as a regressive movement by presenting it as a gesture and space that can also be future oriented Bion in Film Theory and Analysis will be of significant interest to academics and students of psychoanalysis psychotherapy and film and media studies as well as psychoanalysts and psychotherapists      Screen/Play Peter Brunette, David Wills, 2014-07-14 Peter Brunette and David Wills extend the work of Jacques Derrida into a new realm with rewarding consequences Although Derrida has never addressed film theory directly in his writings Brunette and Wills argue that the ideas he has developed in his critique of the logocentric foundations of Western thought especially his notion of Writing can be usefully applied to film theory and analysis They maintain that such an application might even begin to shift film from its traditional position within the visual arts to a new place in the media and information sciences This book also supplies a fascinating introduction to Derrida for the general reader The authors begin by explaining in political terms why film theorists have neglected Derrida s work Next they offer a Derridean critique of the assumptions of contemporary film studies Then drawing on his recently translated The Truth in Painting as well as on other relatively unknown texts such as Droit de regards they discuss his ideas in relation to the cinema and present two film analyses of Truffaut s The Bride Wore Black and of Lynch s Blue Velvet that attempt to demonstrate the notion of an anagrammatical radical reading practice Finally they focus on Derrida s neglected book The Post Card and situate cinema in terms of a new definition of the technological Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
