Linebarger,2018-02-19 The influence of Buddhism on the Chinese language on Chinese literature and on Chinese culture in general cannot be overstated and the language of most Chinese Buddhist texts differs considerably from both Classical and Modern Chinese This reader aims to help students develop familiarity with features of Buddhist texts in Chinese including patterns of organization grammatical features and specialized vocabulary It also aims to familiarize students with the use of a range of resources necessary for becoming independent readers of such texts Chinese Buddhist Texts is suitable for students who have completed the equivalent of at least one year s college level study of Modern Chinese and are familiar with roughly one thousand of the commonest Chinese characters Previous study of Classical Chinese would be an advantage but is not assumed It is an ideal textbook for students taking relevant courses in Chinese studies programs and in Buddhist studies programs However it is also possible for a student to work through the reader on his or her own Further online resources are available at lockgraham com Concepts of Philosophy in Asia and the Islamic World Raji C. Steineck,Ralph Weber,Robert Gassmann,Elena Lange,2018-05-07 The contributions to Concepts of Philosophy in Asia and the Islamic World reflect upon the problems implied in the received notions of philosophy in the respective scholarly literatures They ask whether and for what reasons a text should be categorized as a philosophical text or excluded from the canon of philosophy and what this means for the concept of philosophy The focus on texts and textual corpora is central because it makes authors expose their claims and arguments in direct relation to specific sources and discourages generalized reflections on the characteristics of for example Japanese culture or the Indian mind The volume demonstrates that close and historically informed readings are the sine qua non in discussing what philosophy is in Asia and the Islamic world just as much as with regard to Western literature Contributors are Yoko Arisaka Wolfgang Behr Thomas Fr hlich Lisa Indraccolo Paulus Kaufmann Iso Kern Ralf M ller Gregor Paul Lisa Raphals Fabian Sch fer Ori Sela Rafael Suter Christian Uhl Viatcheslav Vetrov Yvonne Schulz Zinda and Nicholas Zufferey Biblical Translation in Chinese and Greek Toshikazu Foley,2009-09-30 This study integrates three independent subjects translation theory Mandarin aspect and Greek aspect for the purpose of formulating a working theory applicable to translating the Bible The primary objectives are defined in terms of grammatical translation of Greek aspect into Mandarin aspect at the discourse level A historical overview of the Chinese Bible is provided as a way of introducing major translation issues related to linguistic conceptual and logistical challenges The proposed theory provides the translator with a powerful tool which is tested in two sample passages from John 18 19 and 1 Corinthians 15 Provided also are critical reviews of over sixty Chinese Bible versions Nestorian Manichaeian Catholic documents and a translation written according to the proposed theory Handbook of chinese Buddhism Ernest J.
